WHAT WILL MR CLEVELAND DOP

Tom Read Made a Fight, but He Could Not Head the Democrats Who Were Bent on Bolting the Bill.

Washington, August 13 .- (Special.)-All that remains now to make the senate bill law is the president's signature, and some lieve, though without good grounds, that he will withhold his signature or possibly

The bill is not so good a one as the house pect, but it is so far superior to the McKinley act that no one who cherishes the hope tariff reform could conscientiously hinder ts passage. This was the feeling which rompted Speaker Crisp to withdraw manhow hopeless and even disastrous it was to ontinue the fight.

It was this view which urged Mr. Wilson o call a caucus of democrats and advise its acceptance. The stalwart Turner expressed these views in his clash with Rend today, and it was this patriotic determination to alleviate the sufferings of the people even to any extent, which caused 182 democrats to vote for its final passage Demanded or Commanded.

It is talked about the corridors toright hat one reason why free sugar, free coal, and free iron were put through the house tonight was in compliance with an expressed demand from the white house, so that president could tell within the ten days given him to hold the bill exactly what d'sats these measures as is their habit of ating poppun bills, then he will vero the mment and nold congress together ent to him. This seems feasible and yet hardly probable, for the country 's camorcommerce needs it as a drowning man needs land under his feet.

There was little of the enthusiasm displayed in the passage of this bill which uslly accompanies the passage of any imortant measure. Senators were thick about e house and the galleries were crowded . comparatively speaking there vas litle applauding. The democrats hissed the epublicans, and the republicans hooted the

The democrats were somewhat sore on hemselves, and cany showed ill temper as hey sat down to the crow feast. But this lagrin did not equal any part of the indignation and despair expressed as well as felt y the republicans. They were deluded by fom Reed, the narrowest of politicians, and had cherished to the last the hope that the bill would be defeated. When they finally and fully realized that their belowed No Kinley act, that foster mother of trusts and monopolies, was going to be repealed and a bitterness was intense, and try to hide it as hest they could, they showed in many ways the anguish of their overthrow. The Georgia delegation stood solidly behind the speaker in every move. In fact, an almost solid d'imocratic side stood with him. It was 10:30 o'clock tonight when the pro gramme outlined by the speaker at 10 o'clock this morning was concluded.

ACTION OF THE CAUCUS.

The House Democrats Were Almost Unanimous in Their Action. Washington, August 13.-The house democratic caucus today adopted a resolution, by a vote of 130 to 21, discharging the house conferees from further consideration of the tariff bill and agreeing to the

The resolution also provided that sugar, coal, iron ore and barbed wire should be put on the free list by means of separate tills, which it is purposed to report from the ways and means committee at once. The resolution its full text was as fol-

"Resolved That it is the sense of this caucus that the order heretofore made requesting a conference with the senate on the disagreeing votes of the two houses on house resolution 4,864 be rescinded; that the conferees heretofore appointed on the part of the house be discharged from further duty in its behalf and that the house recede from its disagreement to the senate amendments to said bill and agree make an order providing for the prompt deration of such motion and bills. It was not until today that the fact became known that a long conference was held at Speaker Crisp's room last night, which was attended by the four conferee on the part of the house as well as by the speaker himself. At this conference the situation was fully reviewed; the legislacussed and a conclusion reached that a resolution agreeing to the senate bill should be offered at today's caucus.

The conference did not break up until midnight. When it became known to a select few, a prominent democrat whose influence with the conferees has been very strong went to the speaker's room to urge that action be deferred a day or two at least. It was then 1 o'clock. The speaker rose and he and his caller discussed this new proposition for more than an hour, but the speaker was firm and refused to recede from his position.

Met in the Speaker's Room At half-past 9 o'clock this morning the four house conferees, Mr. Breckinridge, of Arkansas, and Mr. Catchings, of Mississippi, joined the speaker in the latter's rocm at the capitol. Here again the programme to be followed was discussed, with some of the number counseling delay.

The report of the caucus shows that Mr. Wilson suggested that the matter of agreeing with the senate bill be laid over temporarily, but the sentiment or caucus in favor of unraveling the tariff snarl by accepting the senate meas ure was so strong that the chairman' request passed unheeded and the resolution was carried like a whirlwind. The resolutions embodied two proposi tions, being to discharge the conferees to accept the senate bill The vote on this was 130 to 21. No division was taken on the remaining portion of the resolutions, which were moved by Speaker Crisp.

In doing so Mr. Crisp said that he believ ed that the house should continue the fight as long as there remained even a desperate hope of success. He believed that the house bill, with the senate amendments was better than no bill. If better than the McKinley bill, which he believed it was, it was th duty of the house to accept it and get for the people what they could. A half loaf was better thar no bread. After a confer ence with Secretary Carlisle and other per liamentarians, he believed that the bill was in the hands of the house, and, therefore believed that action in the direction of the risolution which he would offer could be car-

Did Not Even Notice Warner. Mr. Warner, of New York, asked if mem bers should not do the duty for which they were sent here and leave the senate to meet its own responsibilities and leave the people to deal with it and the members of the house? Mr. Crisp did not reply to the question but closed by saying that returning to the ther . lit of.

de Cockran, of New York, opposed the we ration. He made the point that as yet neither the senate nor the conferees had taken any action to lead the house to surrender. The proposition practically was on the dictation of four unnamed men that the house abandon its duty. When Mr. Cockran said this, there were loud calls and cries of "How about the New York senators?" etc. He repudiated the action of any senator such a course as had been suggested. An attempt was practically being made, not to disagree, but to kick the house conferees out of the conference. Should the house agree to this? If four unnamed men had the democratic party by the throat, "then, for God's sake," said Mr. Cockran, "let us know it."

The previous question on the resolution was then called for while the Louisiana members were calling for recognition.

The Committee on Rules. The committee on rules met immediately after the caucus adjourned but as Mr. Outhwaite, of Ohio, one of the democratic members, was not present, the republicans, by a tie vote, prevented action and the com mittee adjourned. Mr. Outhwaite went to Cresson Springs, Pa., Saturday to visit his family. His return was delayed but he reached the capitol at 2 o'clock this afternoon. In twenty minutes after that time the committee on rules had again met and carried into effect the crucus action as related in the report of the house proceedings.

PASSING THE BILL. Tom Reed Fought It but It Went

Through All Right. Washington, August 13.—After the reading of the journal, Mr. Sayers offered a joint resolution extending until the 24th instant the provisions of the joint resolution carr ing forward the appropriations upon the basis of those for the past year.

Mr. Cannon, republican, of Illinois, asked
Mr. Sayers if he thought he had given himself enough time.

Mr. Sayers answered that if there was no agreement on the sundry civil appropriation bill by that date, there possibly would be none at all.

The joint resolution was passed.

District of Columbia business was undertaken, but discussion of the first bill called up was interrupted by the introduction of the expected order from the committee on up was interrupted by the introduction of the expected order from the committee on rules relating to the consideration of the tariff bill and cognate measures, which was proposed by Mr. Catchings. It provided, first, that it shall be in order after the passage of the order, to move that the action of the house requesting a further conference on the tariff bill be rescinded; that the conferees be discharged from further duty in connection therewith, and that the house agree to the senate amendments in bulk, which motion shall be debated two hours, when the vote on its adoption and the motion shall be indivisible. General leave to print on the subject is given for ten days, Second, that it shall be in order after the introduction of the order to present in the house and consider, without reference to any committee, bills for placing sugar, coal, iron ore and barbed wire upon the free list. Thirty minutes shall be given for the discussion of each bill and then a vote shall be taken.

Mr. Catchings moved the previous question, and Mr. Reed raised a point of order against the resolution.

The Speaker—The gentleman will state it.

against the resolution.

The Speaker—The gentleman will state it.
Mr. Reed said that a portion of the resolution proposed action upon a bill which, in his opinion, was not before the house, and therefore, it was not in order for the house to pass the resolution.

Mr. Reed explained the parliamentary streeting from his standarding asserting receede from its disagreement to those amendments. And which bill would become the law would puzzle everybody except those persons who cut the gordian knots and do not untle them. He reinforced his position that the house was not entitled to the custody of the bill and papers, by quoting from a decision by Speaker Colfax in the thirty-eighth congress, where he declined to receive a conference report proposed to be made by Mr. Washburn, because the house was not entitled to receive cause the house was not entitled to receive it. He also read from Jefferson's Manual to show that the papers in the case belonged to the house, assenting to the request for a conference. Mr. Reed suggested this situation: Suppose at the same moment the house took the action proposed in this order, the senate should demand the bill for the purpose of taking other action upon the what situation should we he in? it. What situation should we be in? Mr. Reed said he did not know that he should succeed in convincing the majority that they were wrong in this matter, but he would put them where the heathen are who have heard the missionary—they will have no second chance for redemp

The Situation Reviewed. Speaker Crisp, in ruling upon the point of order, said that in considering the point of order made by Mr. Reed it was necessary not only to look at the position of the bill, but at what is proposed to be done by the resolution reported. After reciting the various steps in the passing of the Hill resolution, the speaker said that as to its parliamentary status Mr. Reed had correctly cited the scope and effect of Jefferson's Manual. This rule, however, he said, pro-posed to change Jefferson's Manual, and he question was not whether what was proposed to be done was according to au-thority but whether the change in the rules will be valid, legal and binding. The house, Mr. Crisp said, had the right to change the rules based on the manual as well as any other rules, and the case cited gress was not in point. As to the legality of the proceeding, the speaker said he had found a precedent in the proceedings of the forty-second congress which was on allfours with the action proposed. In that instance the bill was introduced in the senate and after reaching the same stage as the tariff bill at present, on motion of Mr. Harlan, one of the conferees, the senate discharged its conferees, the senate receding from its disagreement to the hous amendments and the bill becoming a law. At the same date (June 10, 1872,) the journal of the house showed that the bill was in that body. The object of all conferences, said Speaker Crisp, was to get the minds of the two houses together, and, while a conference committee is still in existence, it has been held that one house may recede from the disagreement to the amend-ments of the other house and permit the bill to become law. In support position, the speaker had the clerk read from a decision of Speaker Carlisle, which was to the effect that where two conferees disagreed the situation was different from that of other cases, and that the house may vote to change its action upon the bill without rescinding previous votes of a contrary character

"In brief," said the speaker, "the point of order made by the gentleman from Maine is overruled and the question is upon ordering the previous question."

The previous question was seconded without a division, and the speaker recognized the gentleman from Mississippi, Mr. Catchings, who had risen from his seat simultaneously with Mr. Reed. The former indicated his willingness to yield to Mr. Reed, while the latter sat down, as if unwilling to deprive Mr. Catchings of the

Mr. Reed, however, again arose and made one of his most sarcastic speeches. He did not wonder, he said, that the other side did not desire to discuss the action about to be taken. (Laughter.) But he would give them a plain statement of what they were going in the last ditch. This was the last ditch and the lower part of it. (Laughter.) He realized how distasteful it must be and ho the democrats were trying to season it with suitable garnishings. They were about to enact what they believed was not an honest bill in a dishonest way. They were about to desert "the roll of honor" and trick themselves out with the gawgaws of this absurd proposition.

Mr. Turner Replies to Reed. Mr. Turner, of Georgia repled to Mr.

Reed and was greated with applause by the democrats. He said the gentleman from Maine had built up a parliam natury system which now reacted against him. There was no right or justice in the assumption that the action of the sonate in sending the bill back to the house was erroneous. He asked Mr. Reed what right he had to make this assumption. Mr. Reed said he did not make any claim. He had ben informed that the irregularity occurred, but he bad no rsonal information.

Mr. Turner proceeded to show that the present action of the house was strictly reg-ular. On all such occasions as this there was sound common sense dominating congress, which brought order out of the liamentary chaos which experts 1rd devised. When the McKinley till was passed more than one hundred of the ament ments were passed with little or no debute. took only two hours to impose the burgens of the McKinley law upon the american people," said he, "should it take thy more than two hours to lift the burdens from the American people?" Each one of these items had been discussed for months. The Republicans Rattled. Mr. Reed proceeded to discuss the decision of the chair and the controversy over the decision between himself and Mr. Tur-ner consumed the few remaining minutes. The question then being on agreeing to the resolution, Mr. Hied demanded a days on. The entire democratic side rese en masse, but when the negative vote was called for the republicans sat calmly in their scats hoping to break a quorum.

When the speaker announced the wate as 188, three more than a quorum, the repubicans were somewnat disconcerted. Mr. Reed demanded the year and rays. The house order was adopted -: 76 to 97, not voting il. Among the de no race voting in the negative were Messra. Davey, Rob-

Mr. Reed sat down disconsite's, and Mr. Wilson took the floor. I'e spoke but ten minutes at the opening of the debate. He then reserved the balance of this time and Mr. Reed, the leader of the opposition, took the floor. The gentleman from Maine aroused his followers to the highest pitch of enthusiasm. McMillin on the Reductions.

Mr. McMillin, a member of the ways and means committee, followed Mr. Reed. He began by recalling, in connection with Mr. Reed's phophecy of the political disaster to the democrats of the house, the overthrow of the republican house after the prassage of the McKinley bill in 1890. After criticising

Columbia, S. C., August 13.-(Special.)-County conventions of the reform, or Tillman faction, to which delegates were elected in reform ciub primaries last Saturday in accordance with what is known as the Colleton plan, were held in all countles of the state today, and delegates were elected to the reform state convention which will meet here August 16th, to nominate reform candidates for governor and l'eutenant governor and probably an entire state ticket.

Reports from the conventions are meager, but the election of sufficient delegates to nominate John Gary Evans by an overwhelming majority was a foregone conclu-

The reports generally indicate that between 30 and 50 per cent of the 55,000 reform votes cast in 1892, participated in Saturday's club election.

Richland county's convention elected ten elegates and endorsed Evans. Anderson, a upposed Ellerbe county, went for Evans in the convention. Evans receiving 350, Ellerbe 290 and Tindall 35 votes. Newberry convention elected Evans delegates by twothirds majority. The Laurens convention voted unanimously for Evans. Evans had a walk over in the Laneaster convention. Williamsburg voted in primary for Evans 606 to 314, and an Evans delegation was elected in the convention. Aiken, Evans's nome county, instructed for him. Two-thirds of the Fairfield convention was for Evans and elected an Evans delegation. Less than 300 participated in the primaries. Marlboro Ellerbe receiving 201 votes, Tindall 64 and Evans 58. Florence elected an Ellerbe dele-gation. Clarendon, Tindail's hipme, len-dorsed Tindail, giving tim 350 to 219 for Evans. The Fairfield, Florence and Mari-boro conventions instructed their delegates to vote against the state convention making any nomination, and in favor of leaving the contest to be fought out in the general democratic primaries August 28th. If defeated in this proposition the delegates are to participate in nominations by the reform convention. The majority of the counties heard from favor the nomination of a full state ticket. Lancaster and Hampton. The following are for Ellerbe: Pickins, and Chester. Spartanburg, Greenville, Barnwell, Beaufort, Lexington, Colleton, Union and Chesterfield have not been heard from, but all, with the possible exception of the last, are regarding as certain for Evans. The convention will consist of 320 delegates. Of these Evans will certainly have 264 prob ably 270; Ellerbe 44 and Tindall 6. Evans is therefore sure of election on the first bal-

one Wing of the Reformers Elects

Charleston, S. C., August 13 .- (Special.)-The John Gary Evans wing of the Tillman reform faction met here today, about thirty delegates being present, and elected delegates to the reform convention to be held in Columbia for the purpose of suggesting a candidate for governor. The convention was organized by the election of Mr. Whaley as temporary chairman, and Mr. W. E. Klein, as temporary secretary. There were no county delegates present.

Chairman Whaley read a letter from R. T. Morrison, of McClellanville, asking that the convention elect two delegates from McClellanville to the state convention. The temporary organization was made permanent. Mr. F. H. Horton Colcock moved that the convention nominate two delegate from McClellanville. The motion was-adopt ed. The following delegates were then put in nomination and unnaimously elected by acclamation: H. G. Cannaday Dr. W. A. Gibson, M. J. Mott, W. W. Sale, W. F. Su-Gibson, M. J. Mott, W. W. Sale, W. F. Suran, W. E. Klein, J. G. Moody, Robert Grayham, F. Horton Colcock, Patrick Slattery, W. Gibbes Whaley, George W. Rouse, Dr. B. M. Lebby, G. Douglas Rouse, John T. Forbes, R. T. Morrison, Jr., H. Y. Morrison. Alternates: W. H. Halsall, Dr. W. P. Dowling, J. H. Stevens, Elmore Dukes, H. B. Lenning, Leeping, Martin, Mr. H. B. Jennings, Joseph G. Martin, Mr Colcock moved that it be left to the discretion of the delegation whether it would vote for the nomination of an entire state ticket including the railroad commissioners or only for the nomination for governor

The motion was adopted.

A discussion was entered into as to whether the delegation should be instructed. Mr. Colcock said it was well understood that this club endorsed John Gary Evans (cheers). And the endorsement was allowed to go without saying. The Till-manites of the city who are opposed to John Gary Evans and who were shut out of the meeting on Saturday night to elect delegates to the convention, are very much incensed and will probably hold another convention and elect a different set of dele convention and elect a different set of dele-gates to Columbia. Both Ellerbe and Tin-dall have a considerable following here among the reformers, and these are not satisfied with the way in which the Sat-urday convention was managed. It is prob-able, therefore, that Gharleston will send two delegations to the convention.

York County for Evans.

Yorkville, S. C., August 12.—(Special.)—
The reform convention of York county met in the courthouse at this place today pursuant to the call of Chairman Riggins for the purpose of canvassing the vote of the primary held in this county on Saturday last. There was a full attendance of delegates from all parts of the county. A count of the votes showed up as follows: Evans.

391; Ellerbe, 291; Tindall. 41; Pope, 1. The convention elected one delegate from each township, ten in number, and these were instructed by the convention to vote for Evans in the suggesting convention which York County for Evans.

EVANS AND GANTT.

Spartanburg County Is Solid for John Gary and Larry.

Spartanburg, S. C., August 15.—(Special.)-The reform democratic convention met to-day with the largest delegation ever known in this county. Three thousand five hun-dred and eighty-seven votes were cast in the county. John Gary Evans received all but eleven. Strong resolutions were pass-ed endorsing Larry Gantt, and pledging him that the people would stand by him. Four alliances met Saturday and passed resolutions endorsing Gantt and condemning the state alliance. Evans will sweep the Piedmont section. Piedmont section.

NORTH CAROLINA'S ALLIANCE.

Its Membership Is Reported to Be 27,500-Once It Was 100,000. Raleigh, N. C., August 13 .- (Special.)-The Constitution's correspondent this afternoon interviewed President Marion Butler, chairman of the state alliance executive committee, regarding his report made to the committee. Butler said that the strength of the alliance is about twelve hundred greater than it was twelve months ago. The state president, Newborne, has been quite active in organizing new sub-alliances and reorganizing old ones. The North Carolina alliance now has about 27,500 members. The finances have been just large enough to operate H. The fees are small, no larger than when it had 100,000 members. The state business agency shows a business during the twelve months of about $375,000. It has felt, like everything else, the hard times. Its business has been as large as half a million. A new business agent may be elected or W. H. Worth may he retained until it is seen whether he is elected state treasurer. William A. Graham reported today as trustee of the business fund. This approximates $31,000. Only $2,000 was drawn out of it under the act of the last legislature, which is a remarkable showing. Out of it, also, $1,900 was expended in the fight against the jute bagging trust. Dallas, Tex., August 13.-The Texas state democratic convention will be called to or-der at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning in the Sam Jones tabernacle, which seats 10,000 people. Every seat will be filled. Tonight the city is brimful of prominent men and leaders in their respective localities. The hotels are tested to their utmost, but they are equal to the occasion. A full state ticket will be nominated, including judges of the supreme and appellate courts. The candidates for governor are B. Culberson, of Dallas county; John H. Reagan, of Anderson county; S. W. T. Lanham, of Parker, and John D. McCall, of Travis. For each of the offices there are numerous candidates. If the majority rule is adopted Culberson will be nominated on the first ballot for governor.

A DEFEAT FOR CAMDEN.

Democratic Primaries in West Virginia Against Him. Martinsburg, W. Va., August 13.-The warmest political contest ever known in the state closed on Saturday with the demo-cratic primaries in Jefferson county to select delegates to the senatorial, district lelegate and county delegate conventions. The senatorial question was the issue, and the lines between the Camden and anti-Camden men were rigidly drawn. The result was a defeat of Senator Camden. D. W. Catlett, of Morgan county, carried the county for state senator; R. A. Dandridge, for district delegate, and Major A. W. Mc Donald for county delegate, Dandridge, until ten days ago, was a Camden man, and would have been defeated had he not announced his intention to vote against Senator Camden for United States senator. Catlett's victory gives him the nomination.

Mayor Heflin for Congress. Lafayette, Ala., August 13.—(Special.)— Mayor J. Thomas Heffin, of this place, has announced himself a candidate for congress from this, the fifth congressional district. He will contend with Hon. J. E. Cobb, the present incumbent, Hon. T. L. Bulger, of Tallapoosa, and Hon. Tom Williams, of Elmore. Mr. Heflin is a young man, a fine campaigner, good orator and a stanch democrat. He rendered valuable services to the democracy in the last campaign. He has been twice elected mayor of this place. His prospects are bright for the nomination.

Declines the Nomination.

Bristol, Tenn., August 13.-(Special.)-Judge H. S. K. Morrison declines the nomination for congress tendered him by the Bristol convention. A meeting of the executive con mittee of the district has been called by the Stone Gap, Va., Wednesday, August 15th.

A Newspaper Change. Raleigh, N. C., August 13.—The News and Observer, the leading democratic news-paper in North Carolina, has changed hands. Mr. Josephus Daniels is the president of the new company, and will direct the policy of the paper. Mr. W. E. Christian, late foreign correspondent of The New York Press, and Mr. F. L. Merritt, late associate editor of The North Carolinian, have taken positions on the staff. Mr. F. B. Arendall is business manager. The com pany is a strong one, and embraces many of the leading men of the state. An entire new outfit has been provided and an extensive special news service will be organized.

Wichita, Kans., August 13 .- The Wichita National bank, the oldest banking institu tion in the southwest, went into the nands of the comptroller of currency this morning. Their last report, made in July, showed only $26,000 in specie on hand. It is said the bank holds considerable bad paper. The county commissioners have $14,500 in the bank. The direct cause of the suspension is not given out, and figures are un-obtainable at the present hour. The presi-

CORBETT PREFERS THE SOUTH Jackson Refuses to Meet Him in

This Part of the Country. THEY CALL EACH OTHER LIARS.

The Negro Wants the Battle to Be Fought in London, but the Champion Objected to That.

New York, August 13.-There will be no fight between Corb.tt and Jackson. The two heavy weights met this afternoon and called each other bluffers and finally declared all negotiations looking toward a meeting between the two off. The two men met at Jackson's room in the Grand Union botel, Corbett going there with Manager Brady, could not meet the champion until tomor row. The request for delay angered Corbett and he proceeded at once to Jackson's room. Crossing the room to where Jackson was sitting, Corbett said to him: "I want to fight you. Come now: get down to business." "It's about time you did," replied Jack-

This angered Corbet and each called the other "bluffer."

"I am too much of a gentleman to call you a liar," said Corbett when Jackson said he did not want to fight. Then cach called the other more names. Jackson pos't'vely refused to fight in the south and offered to fight him to a finish before the National Club in England. Corbett said they would be permitted to fight only twenty rounds there and refused this offer.

Finally they could not agree on any place in the north where they could light and be gan again to call each other bluffers. They declared everything off and shaking hands Corbett left the hotel. Creedon to Try Fitzsimmons.

St. Louis, Mo., August 13.-At noon today Dan Creedon, champion middle weight of Australia, signed articles to fight Bob Fitzsimmons for a purse of $5,000 before the Olympic Club, of New Orleans, on the night of September 26th. The articles of agreement have been returned to President Scholl, of the Olympic Club, who is now in New York, and Creedon will at once commence active training for the fight. As both men will be required to draw down to 158 pounds, it is believed that Fitzsimmons cannot stand the reduction.

THEY WERE LYNCHED.

The Two Negroes Who Assaulted Miss Potts Put to Death. Luraville, Fla., August 13.-The two negroes who assaulted Miss Potts in La-Favette county a few days ago were caught near McAlpin early this morning. They confessed their guilt and were carried to the scene of the crime and lynched. Miss Potts, the victim of the negroes assault, is only fourteen years old. She was assaulted on August 6th and left unconscious in the woods. She recovered and dragged herself home and told what had appened. Since then posses have been in pursuit of the brutes. Miss Potts's mind has been effected by her terrible experience, and it is thought that she will never recover her faculties.

SHE ATTEMPTED SUICIDE. The Poor Girl Had Hoped to Hide Her

Shame. Birmingham, Ala., August 13.-(Special.)-At Russellville, on Saturday, Miss Dora Smith, a popular young woman of that place and a member of one of the most prominent families in that county, attempted suicide by cutting her throat with a knife. She went to a spring a few hundred yards from the house and while there cut two gashes five inches in length and very deep. One of the gashes was into the windpipe. She was found in an almost dy-ing condition. Five hours after being found she gave birth to a well developed will live and the child is doing well.

Greensboro, N. C., August 12.—(Special.)—A sickening accident happened today at Hight Point, about fifteen miles from here. Et gineer Charley Briggs, who runs the local freight between here and Charlotte, left here this morning in the best of spirits and health. A few hours later ne was a corpse, He sidetracked his train at High Point, and while the freight was being unloaded and his engine was blowing off steam, he started across the main track. A shifting train struck him, mangling his leg and foot fearfully, producing heart failure. His wife and child accompanied by the Southern's physicians went to High Point on a special. Mr. Briggs lingered some time after the arrival, and recognized his wife and child. He was a splendid specimen of manhood.

JAPANESE-CHINESE WAR.

Chinese Laying Submarine Mines Before Taku.

London, August 13 .- The Central News correspondent in Shanghai says that there were only a few ironclads among the Japanese vessels that attacked Port Arthur and Wei-hai-Wei. Most of the fleet were merchantment who had been converted hastily into cruisers and were carrying troops for work ashore. What has become of the Japanese fleet since the morning of the 11th nobody in Shanghai has heard. There is considerable apprehension among the Chinese on the Yellow sea, and small steam vessels are seccing constantly, but no view of the hostile squadron was obtained either yesterday or today. The Chinese were alarmed greatly by the attack on Wei-hai-

Wei. More submarine Chinese mines have been laid before Taku and Wei-hai-Wei. The British warship Mercury left Chefoo Saturday noon for Wei-hai-Wei to meet the foreigners of the latter port. Many of the buoys along the Chinese coast, most nctably in the neighborhood of the threatened port, have been removed. A strong Chinese fleet has left the coast. The impression in Shanghai is that this flast will seek to intercept the transports which are carrying Japanese troops to Corea.

Caused Considerable Comment. St. Petersburg, August 13.-Considerable excited comment is being made here in regard to a dispatch from London stating that it is Great Britain's Intention to propose that the powers intervene in Corea with the view of obtaining the evacuation of that country by China and Japan and the establishment of international control. It is stated here that Russia would not permit this and that she would prefer to al-low the war to continue.

FASHIONS OF THE DAY.

Worth, the Great French Authority, Disapproves of the Sailor Hat. Red heeled shoes with square toes and buckles are predicted as likely to be the next eccentricity of fashion in footwear. They will be made of black undressed kid or satin, so as to insure an effect of smallness, and will be worn with plain black silk stockings, clocked or otherwise to suit the taste of the wearer.

In the matter of summer gloves, the wash leather seems to have precedence over silk and kid for ease and effectiveness. They can be worn loose to the point of wrink-ling, and wash like a cotton garment without noticeable loss of daintiness. They are, as a rule, preferred in pearl or cream white, stitched with black; but importers show them in all the tones of the new dress goods—mauve, opal gray, buttercup yellow, rifle greens and browns, stitched heavily at the back with silk of a deeper shade or black. The latest models from Paris for midsun mer toilets show a decided reform in the making up of all diaphanous materials. They are to longer clumsily lined through-out, but are made up unlined, to be worn over half high underwaists and skirts of different colored silks. This increases the effect of lightness and makes them more becoming. French gauze, crepe de chine, mull, organdie and chiffon are some of the stuffs used, and in all cases they are elaborately trimmed with lace and rib-

One exquisite cashmere seen among the French models—chiefly Figlix inspirations—was a "casino gown" of primrose yellow organdie, flowered with pale lilac and green leaves. The wide skirt was gored and trim-med at the bottom with two tiny ruffles of the organdie, edged with white footing and finished at the top with a garniture of huge connecting rosettes of primrose yellow satir ribbon. The baby waist and full three-quar ter length night gown sleeves were also trimmed with the footing and ribbon, and fashioned to go with all this sublime sim-plicity were three complete under suits of silk, in colors yellow, green and lilac, to match all the tints of the organdie. Designed this way, though an expensive and short lived garment, the transparent gown can be made to take on as many tones as the wearer has moods and petticoats.

Many new additions to the old sailor shape are seen, both plain and trimmed. But granted their usefulness to a favored lew-lassies in their 'teens and fresh, rosy checked matrons scarcely out of them-the injudicious lover of the plain sailor will find a lit-tle wholesome if unpleasant criticism of them in the following anecdote told of M.

Worth: A well known English lady, charmingly gowned and wearing a hard, white sailor hat, went to the great man to complain that somehow his last creation was not entirely

"Look at me, monsieur," she said, with almost tears in her eyes. "On my maid or across my bed this dress is delightful, per-fect in every respece; on me it is a fright!" M. Worth looked at his customer a long moment, apparently fascinated by the sight of her hat—the last shape in the world for the lady's thin, rather weary face.

"Madame," he said at last, the outraged feeling of an artist getting the better of all commercial possibilities, there is noth-ing the matter with your dress. But, aside from the fact that your hat is not in keeping with your costume, for a person of your type to wear a tin pan on her head is to become at once as you say—pardon frank-become at once as you say—pardon frame-become at once as you say—pardon frame-ness, madame—a fright!"

One of the little tricks of French millin-ery, when the large hat is worn, is before trimming to sew securely the inner edge of the brim all around to the crown. This lifts the brim from the hair and prevents the treacherous and trying Groop at the sides so often seen in large la's.

NINA FITCH.

TOBACCO INEBRIETY.

Coffee the Most Effective Antidote.

Coffee the Most Effective Antidote.
From The New York sun.

Is there a tobacco inebriety? There is no doubt that tobacco, through the nervous sustem, contracts the capillaries, making the face pale and skin cold, and there is subsultus and general museular tremulousness, while the heart labors to force on the supply of blood until its own vascular system goes under the influence of the narcotic. Then the stomach involuntarily contracts and sometimes active convulsions ensue as in tetanus. Alcohol, on the other hand, from its relaxing power over the nervous system, sets free the heart, reduces the muscular power and counteracts the tobacco. The most effective antidote for micotine poisoning, however, is coffee. It is duces the muscular power and counteracts the tobacco. The most effective antidote for nicotine poisoning, however, is coffee. It is well known that enormous quantities of tobacco have been used with apparent in, punity by seasoned smokers, and so completely does the system seem to tolerate it in some cases that the story is told of a smoker so inveterate that his valet had orders every morning to light a cigar and place it between his master's trettle in order that the devotee of the weed might awake with the proper taste in his mouth. It is certain, nevertheless, as we have said that tobacco in excess—the quantity which can be called excess varying with the susceptibility of 'he user—is a fertile cause of heart troubles, dyspepsia, debility, loss of vision, and various other serious mischiefs. Yet it is widely different in its action from alcohol and the other intoxicants which are considered in this book. No deeds of crime or violence are laid to its charge. Neither does it seem to give rise to mental or moral perversion, as does alcohol, and as spium and other canesthetic narcotics do in a less degree. That tobacco has a nowerful influence on the nervous system is undisputed. Dr. Kerr cites the case of an abstaler from alcohol who trembled like a man with delirium tremes every morning until he had a pipe to steady him. Even in this case, however, there was no moral or mental aberration. The craving for tobac-puted. Dr. Kerr cites the case of an abstalver from alcohol who trembled like a man with delirium tremens every morning until he had a pipe to steady him. Even in this case, however, there was no moral or mental aberration. The craving for tobacco has never been known so irresistible as to make a smoker pawn his wife's clothes or so utterly deprive bis family of bread as to kill them by starvation in order to satisfy his longing, or to commit a criminal offense against the person, a thing often witnessed in alcoholic, opiate and other forms of inselvely. Thus, although no defender of tobacco, which, it cannot be denied, is a mere luxury, injurious to the health of many, even when used in moderation, the author is driven to the conclusion that, in the philosophical and practical sense, there is undoubtedly a tobacco habit, but, except in cases of insanity, the general mental or moral powers are not deeply affected.

There are some persons who indulge to a considerable excess in coffee drinking, and many more who go to even greater excess in the use of tea. It has, accordingly, been contended by some abstainers from these two substances that they are capable of generating a form of inebriety corresponding to etherism. Unquestionably, intemperate the at a coffee drinking will give rise to serious mischief. The inordinate consumer of strong tea may become a dyspeptic wreck, a sleepless hypochondriac, with a decrepit nervous system, the victim of a deep, intense melancholy, with, in some cases, a suicidal tendency. The immederate indulger in coffee, black and strong, may lose all appetite for healthy food, eat little, suffer from tremors, acute neuralgic and other pains, excessive thirst, agonizing headsches and a feeling of intolerable dryness and heat. He may become pinched and emaciated, have a feeble circulation and a constant fear of falling, with a blurred vision, as if looking through light brownish media. These, however, are the symptoms of tea and coffee poisoning. They bear witness, so to speak, to their a

issue he proceeded to point out some of the good features of the senate oill-free wool ber, free hemp, etc., and the reductions in the general schelule. The dutie cal schedule of the senate bil about to be adopted, he said, were reduced from 30 per cent to 24 per cent, Larth and earthenware from 51 per cent to 35 per cent, metals and metal manufactures from 58 to 36 per cent, wood and wooden manufactures 31 to 23, tobacco 117 to 105, cetten 55 to woolens 98 to 48, silk and silk manufacture 53 to 46, pulp and paper 52 to 10, sundries from 25 to 24-total reduction from 58 per ent to 38 per cent. Mr. McMillin eulogized other features, in cluding the extensions of the free list and especially the principle involved in the income tax provision, which taxed not what people consumed, but what they had. Mr. Wilson then yielded a few minutes to Mr. Pence, of Colorado, the leader of the opulists, who said that the populists had thought and thought still, that the centest over the tariff between the two eld parties was a good deal of a muck conflict, and a Bourke Cockran's Protest.

Mr. Cockran, of New York, was given the closest attention by the expectant galieries and was at times enthusiastically applauded from each side of the chamber as his mmer blows were dealt at the Mc-Kinley law or the senate bil. Mr. Cockran was deeply in earnest and his potest against the consummation of this art legislation recalled his famous speech of protest at the Chicago convention.

Mr. Tarsney, democrat of Missouri, followed in a bitter attack on the sere'e bill. He said the highest authority in the ocratic party had stigmatized the i'll as filled with perfidy and dishonor.

"In this characterization I hearthly con cur," said Mr. Tars 12y, "and feeling thus it would be personal dishonor to me to vote for this bill an I shall not do so." There was hearty republican applause at the announcement of Mr. Tarsney, which was the more significant in view of his membership on the ways and means com-

Assuming the Responsibility.

Speaker Crisp, in his speech closing the lebate upon the tariff bill, said he desired to publicly assume full responsibility for what the house was about to do and to aver that it was in the best interest of tariff reform. It was easy, he said, for gentlemen like his friend from New York, Mr. Cockran, who spends but little of his time in attending to the details of the business of the house to indulge in pyrotechnics about "principle," while he, Mr. Crisp, and those who were plain, practical business men, were seeking to obtain some relief for suffering people. Mr. Crisp said he wanted the gentleman and the country to understand that deserters from the cause of tariff reform were not the conferees and those who had been making this great struggle, and who advised that the senate bill be nov ccepted, rather were they those gentler who, amidst the fight, because they did not approve all the provisions of the bill, held back and said "we will have no lot nor part in this struggle further.' "The gentleman from Michigan, Mr. Burrows, had taunted the democrats," said Mr. Crisp, "by saying they wanted free iron ore, free coal and free sugar, and had given them all up. Those who had labored, day and night, in season and out of season o secure changes in the senate bill, told is," he continued, "that we must take that bill or nothing. What would you do? We are plain, practical men, not discussing a theory. We believe in the homely adage that when the people are starving 'half a loaf is better than no loaf.' Therefore, we say we will take the senate bill; but before the house adjourns tonight we will send to the senate bills making sugar, iron ore, coal and barbed wire free. (Applause.)

Some Prefer the McKinley Bill. "It was quite apparent," continued Mr. Crisp, "that gentlemen on the other side preferred the McKinley bill. There were demo-crats who preferred the McKinley bill to the house bill with senate amendments Those gentlemen were willing to incur all kinds of risks because they felt that in the end they could not be loser, because they referred the McKinley bill to the senate oill. So far as he was concerned, he was willing to continue the fight for a better bill. but as between this bill and the McKinley oill, he did not hesitate a moment-he took the senate amendments." Referring to the matter of trusts, Mr. Crisp said if there were any in this country they had been created by the republican party and while the bill did not uproof them, as he wished it did, it reduced the rates of duty on articles controlled by them

o per cent.
"Going through this schedule," said Mr. Crisp in conclusion, "whilst it is not all we wish, it is the best we can now get. The moment we get this schedule, we intend to move forward; we do not intend that there shall be any backward step in tariff reform. (Applause.)

Cockran Knocked Out.

"We believe that the adjournment of this congress without the passage of some kind of a tariff bill would be a blow at tariff reform from which it would not recover for years to come." (Long and continued ap-

At the close of Mr. Crisp's speech there was great noise, confusion and excitement in the hall. From the extreme re-publican corner came cuckoo calls, shouts f "Where is Strauss?" and the statement that "Sugar has gone up four points."

Mr. Cockran repelled with much indignation the suggestion of the speaker as to his having been absent, and said that the speaker was perfectly aware of the painful circumstances which enforced his absence, and he added that the speaker's remark on that point was an evidence of the growth of Georgia chivalry since Alexander Stephens was replaced in the statesmanship of the country by the present speaker of the house.

Mr. Crisp explained that his reference to Mr. Cockran had no relation, and was not intended to have any relation to that gentleman as a representative, but was simply intended to show his ignorance of the situation here. (Applause.)

"How much is that in dollars and cents." "How much is that in dollars and cents." called a member.

"About $25,000,000," replied Mr. McMillin. In conclusion, Mr. Wilson said this was not a time for democratic enthusiasm. It was plain democratic necessity. But if the democratic party was to live—if it did live—it would not lay down its weapons until it had made it impossible in this country to lay burdens on one class of our citizens for the enrichment of another.

Mr. Wilson then demanded a vote on the resolution. The yeas and nays were ordered and resulted—yeas 182, nays 106. Present and rot voting, three. Site for the New Printing Office Until Next Session

Washington, August 13.—The principal natter before the senate today was the onference report on the sundry civil appropriation bill. The conference had agreed non all the subject to discount. propriation bill. The conference had agreed upon all the subjects in dispute between the two houses except as to about a dozen on which further conference was asked. Chief of these was the question of the site for the new government printing office. The senate, when the bill was before it, had adopted an amendment for the purchase of what is known as the Mahone lot, and the house has substituted for that a provision looking for the retention of the present building and the acquisition of adjoining property on which to erect additional buildings. As it was understood that the house was unyieldingly opposed to the Mahone site, Mr. Sherman, in order to defeat the house proposition and to prevent any decision of the subject at the present ruled out on a point of order, its purpose was attained by the senate refusing on a yea and nay vote-22 to 28-to agree

That action cleared away the parliamen-tary objection to Mr. Sherman's motion to recede from the senate amendment, which motion was renewed by Mr. Aldrich and was carried by a vote of 26 to 19. The effect of this is to take from the bill all provision for the printing office site and to et the matter go over till next session. Among the matters on which further conis to be held are the amendments as to the Atlanta exposition and as to the Ford's theater disaster. The house joint resolution extending till August 24th the appropriations for the en-penses of the government, was laid before the senate and objection to its second read-ing having been made by Mr. Aldrich, it was laid over till tomorrow. There was a short executive session between 12 and 1 o'clock, in which the Chinese treaty was ratified. The house bill authorizing the Kingston branch of the Wilmington and Weldon Railroad Company to construct a bridge across the Contentnia creek, in North Carolina was reported and passed

At the request of Mr. Chandler, his reso-lution as to the Alabama election went over till tomorrow. Mr. Morgan not having vet reached the city.

At 3 p. m. the senate adjourned until to

The ernment is having some improvements le in the Tennessee river near this point, at Ross Towhead, about a mile below city, there have been about 125 hands loyed all the summer removing obstrucis from the river bed and cutting a new roes, and until lately they have been isfled in every way. Saturday they went the engineer in charge and demanded rter hours and more pay, which was re-d. This morning all of them appeared work, but before they commenced the and was repeated and refused. The nebecame boisterous and violent and reed to go to work. Captain Reese, the ineer in charge, ordered them away in the works and they refused to go. An t was made to eject them, and in the that followed several of the regroes one of the timekeepers were injured police were telephoned for and the paers who dispersed the rioters, clubbing eral of them severely. Matters were lly quieted down and the unruly .mes driven away. The negroes struck at this time because there are dams other appliances in the river that a rise ht wash away, and a rise in the river is expected in a few days from rains that have fallen above here. New hands are ba-ing rapidly secured and by tomorrow the work will proceed as usual.

HIS PA HID THE GOLD. Now Mr. Brooks Is Looking for Divining Rod.

Athens, Ga., August 13.—(Special.)—Mr. Thomas P. Brooks, of Oglethorpe county, Georgia, moved to Texas shortly after the war and accumulated some twenty or thirty and accumulated some twenty or thirty and gold dollars and buried them in thousand gold dollars and buried them in an iron pot some where in that vast state.

Mr. James K. Brooks, a son of Thomas P. Brooks, came up to Athens today from his home in Ogiethorpe to see Dr. H. C. White, the well-known chemist and president of the State college of agriculture and mechanic aris and to ascertain if there was in college on a secretain if there was in existence any instrument which could be used to locate a hidden supply of gold. Dr. White knew of no such instrument, but showed Mr. Brooks a miner's needle which was used to detect miner's needle which was used to detect the presence of iron ore. As there is not enough iron in a pot, however, to act upon the needle, unless it is brought in very close proximity, Dr. White could give him no encouragement, and Mr. Erooks, to find the gold hidden by his deceased father, must test his patience with a pick and shovel if he ever finds the treasure.

Mr. Brooks said that his father was a miserly old gentleman, and probably did not spend over $10 per annum, and that this economy largely accounts for his wealth. Before the elder Brooks died, he was stricken with paralysis and was unable to tell the location of the buried pot Mr. Jim Brooks was not with his father when he died, else he thinks he could have ascertained the hiding place of the treasure. However, he proposes to find that pot of gold if he has to pick up the whole county

HOROSCOPE CASTING SIMPLE TO HIM.

Some Marvelous Things That He Is Able to Do-He Will Startle the World Some Day.

There is in Atlanta, stopping here for a few days only and upon business for the ouse with which he is connected, a man who is, in a way, to startle the entire world, destroy agnosticism and atheism, and give the scientific and philosophical world a shock for which it will be entirely unprepared. This man is M. L. Johns, of New York, who is registered at the Kimball. If Mr. Johns was simply traveling about trying to catch up people to whom to explain these theories of his, which are beautiful and logical to the extent in which he willing to reveal them, weight would fail to attach to what he professes to be able to do. But the fact that he is a man of practical business ideas and of dignified reinement and is very retiring in his disposition, gives him a hearing for his peculia theories. When called upon he does not hesitate to demonstrate by actual figures what he claims.

Mr. Johns was careful to request that what he exposed as links in this new theory be kept out of print, as he has in prepara-tion a series of lectures which will be printed in book form.

This wonderful man, who would justly be entitled to the name of professor, according to his own statements, gleaned every bit of his knowledge from the Bible, and in the passages of holy writ found the secrets which he claims to be in possession of and discovered reasonings and causes and effects which have hitherto not yielded to the investigations of just as ardent students. He has in his possession a chart of each month of the twelve, filled with figures arranged in peculair diversity, and it is from this that he works out the predestinies of his ellowman when placed in the possession of the smallest data.

To give Mr. Johns the date of your birth is just like handing him a carefully written diary, and it is with the most skillful ease that he is able to approximate the exact time of the death of a person already dead upon being told the date of the person's birth and the last birthday of that person. This, of course, narrows the calculationswhatever they may be called—down to ss than twelve months, but the experiment is just the same, and it is rarely ever that he misses in these. Upon yesterday he gave accurately the date of the death of two persons whose relatives gave the required data and in one instance he even stated the time

No matter what city he goes to Mr. Johns never fails to try his system for his own benefit. He has as yet, as he himself declares, not perfected it, but is making rapid advances every day. On Sunday he went to Oakland cemetery and there, with the aid of some one to read the date of births from the tombstones to him, calculated many deaths, making an average of ten out of twelve. In these calculations—as it would be natural to assume he would do—Mr. Johns does not take into consideration sudden deaths, and excuse any failures by exclaiming that the death was sudden, but, on the other hand, whether the death be by on the other hand, whether the death be by suicide or otherwise, his calculations are just as unerring.

There are many interesting illustrations which Mr, Johns uses, but to even hint as to to what they are would be a breach of confidence. It is needless to repeat, some day he will give the sleeping scientists of even this progressive age an insight into natural laws and affinities that they have never before possessed.

In the meantime, Mr. Johns's first official announcement is awaited with intensest interest.

NEWS OF SOCIETY.

Hon, J. H. Lumpkin, after a delightful visit to the leading cities and seaside resorts of the north, has returned, much refreshed by his trip, residue to the strange here.

Saratoga, N. Y., August 13.—Nothing of a particularly attractive nature was carded today. Colonel Pepper cut loose a good thing in the shape of Pepper in the first race, for adoubtful character, went to the post in this event. The start was fair for the field, although Pepper got away poorly. Buck Massie set the pace with Derelict and Favor Me in close attendance. In the stretch, however, the good thing came through and won in easy fashion. Thurston, in Pittsburg Phil's colors, Pearl Song and Rightmore were looked upon to make the running in the second with the first of the trio a slight favorite. When they straightened out into the stretch, Pearl Song went to the front and won handlily from Thurston, who, whipped out, beat Rightmore for the place.

Jerome Park Race Track, N. Y., August 13.—The blue pencil was used here today with disastrous effect. The card originally contained sixty three horses in the six different events and the talent were congratulating themselves about the good odds they would get against their pet selections, but their surprise was great when the names of but thirty-six horses were retained on the programme. Four favorites won. The most interesting event of the day was the race between Ferier and Blackhawk, who ran a dead beat. In the run-off Blackhawk made the running to the stretch, where Ferrier passed him and won easily by two lengths. The other winners of the day were Stonellie, Harrington, Harry Reed, Doggett, who captured the maiden two-year-old race, and Daily America.

Summaries:

First race, one mile, for three-year-olds and upwards, Stonellie, 102½. M. Bergen, 3 to 1, won; Annie Bishop second, Halton third. Time 1:44%. Only three starters.

Second race, Titan course, about 1.400 yards, for three-year-olds, Harrington, 104, Hamilton, 2 to 1, won; Beldemere second, Pecksniff third. Time, 1:22.

Third race, six furlongs, for three-year-olds and upwards, Stonellie, 102; for three-year-olds and upwards, selling. Ferrier, 111, Simms, 1 to 2, and Blackhawk, 100, H. Jones, 10 to 1, ran a dead heat. Time, 1:165. In the run-off, Ferrier won by two lengths. Time, 1:16. Sam Weller third. Only three starters.

Fourth race, half a mile, purse $500, for two-year-olds, selling, Harry Reed, 107, Simms, 2 to 5, won; Pontclear second, Cockade third. Time, 0:49.

Fifth race, five and a half furlongs, for maiden iwo-year-olds, Doggett, 112, Doggett, 9 to 5, won; Belvina second, Catesby third. Time, 1:454.

Terre Haute, Ind., August 13.—The Nancy Hanks 2:04 track has two more world's records. Boreal won the $10,000 two-year-old futurity, for which the first money is $5,500, and made the two-year-old colt record 2:17%. It has been held by William Penn, at 2:18½, The three heats in this race were also the fas.est three heats ever trotted by two-year-olds. In the 2:25 pacing race, Whirligig won easily, and in the first heat made a new pacing record and at the same time lowered the time record which has been 2:11½. The track was fast and the day perfect.

offer to my friends, the citizens of Atlanta and the coal merchants of this and other cities the above coal at wholesale. It is No. 1 grate, steam and blacksmith coal. I have burnt it and consider it equal to any bituminous coal I ever used. It is very hard, does not slack, no climkers, little dust or smoke; all will burn to a white ash. For economy and comfort I solicit a trial. One firm in Memphis contracted last season to take 201 tons per day; also one in New Orleans 125 tons per day. It was retailed at prices equal to Pittsburg No. 1 coal. I wish agents in other cities to sell this coal by the carload and retail, having four railroads I can ship over, freight the same. The company owns the mine and ships direct. The price of this coal will be very low to suit these tight times, for cash, or credit to the 1st of the following month, with bank references. Atlanta's progress and prosperity is no-ted and appreciated by all who admire pluck and perseverance. The fact that Atlanta and perseverance. The lact that Atlanta succeeds is in a great measure due to the unanimity with which her leading citizens take up and encourage any new enterprise. Any uncertaking which is started on a conservative and sound basis with a view to increasing the manufacturing, commercial, banking or insurance interests is actively supported. The building up of the south will be accomplished only by such trust and confidence as Atlanta displays in encouraging those enterprises which will enable the people to buy what they need at home. The expositions which Atlanta has successfully carried through in the past have done much to call attention to the character, energy and ability of her people, but the coming exposition will, on account of its national character, produce even more beneficial results. One of the latest and muchneeded enterprises which Atlanta has started is the Bankers' Guarantee Fund Life Association, crganized by leading beneficial results and business men. This association succeeds is in a great measure due to the started is the Bankers' Guarantee Fund Life Association, organized by leading bankers and business men. This association has been already placed in a position of assured success by the unhesitating support of the progressive business and professional men of Atlanta and the south. The first policy issued was to the president, W. A. Hemphill, on June 28, 1894, since which ime the association has accepted applications for insurance amounting to $350,000. The association proposes in a short time to issue a circular which will give the name and occupation of each member, and this list will show the names of some of the best known men of this and adjoining states. The association has its offices in the Equitable building, room 635.

ATLANTA, GA., August 14, 1894.

The Tariff Bill. On the theory that half a loaf is better than no bread, and that it is better to swallow a large dose of disappointment than to suffer an utter collapse i the party policy, the house yesterday accepted the tariff bill as framed by the

This seems to be the best that could be done at the present time, as the senate is at present constituted. The democratic majority in that body is very narrow, and in the consideration of the various local interests, bound to be more or less affected by the tariff, it disappears altogether. Such complications as have arisen in regard to the tariff measure are inseparable from that question. Senators are not as close to the people as the members of the house, and they are bound to be affected to a greater or less degree by the large local interests in the variou states that have come to regard protect tion as necessary to their welfare. Some of the senators may have been actuated in their course by motives that will not bear a full and frank investiga tion, but the majority of the democratic senators have tried to perform their duty conscientiously.

The Constitution has never believed that the party would be able in the course of one year, or even four years to pass and put in operation such a tariff measure as the platform demands Undoubtedly the people favor such a tariff, as shown in the general elections of 1890 and 1892, but large reforms move slowly. The powerful interests that have been built up and established by means of class legislation are too strong to be routed during one session of congress. They have intrenched themselves behind fortifications that cannot be carried by one assault. the very nature of things it was inevita ble that such a change as the democratic party proposed and proposes should be out in operation only after a long struggle between the interests of the people and the agents of the trusts. And yet, in spite of the power nterests, the democrats have won a partial victory. The senate bill is a vast improvement over the McKinley The rights and interests of the people have received some considera-There has been a wholesome cutting down of tariff taxes in some directions, and a tax has been levied on the mes of those who have not in many been called on to contribute anything to the support of the government.

Moreover, the house, in moving to make a virtue of necessity by accepting the senate bill, adopted resolutions in favor of free iron, free coal and free sugar. These changes will be embodied in separate bills and pressed upon the senate. In the discussions that will follow the agents of the trusts will be compelled to show their hands, and the responsibility for the partial failure of the democratic policy will be placed precisely where it belongs.

Mr. Gress Not a Candidate. In a strong and thoroughly charac teristic letter, Mr. G. V. Gress announces that he will not be a candidate for mayor of Atlanta, a position for which his name has been frequently used, and for which he has been strongly urged by many of Atlanta's most prominent citizens. Had Mr. Gress expressed a desire for the office or a willingness to enter the race he would have had a strong following, and that he would have been an important factor in any contest for the office goes without saying. But Mr. Gress appreciates the high honor of the office and he also shows a thorough knowledge of the situation as it pre sents itself in Atlanta today. He points out the necessity for harmony among ourselves and truly says: "Nothing could be more injurious to Atlanta's welfare than a heated contest, which would necessarily degenerate into an unseemly scramble for this, the most honorable office in the gift of the people." Her Reward.

Miss Pollard is about to reap the reward of her notoriety. She has just signed a contract for a forty weeks' seaon, with the privilege of renewal, with Mr. Nelson Roberts, formerly connected with Mr. Daniel Frohman.

It is understood that Miss Pollard will make her debut early in October in Chicago, and will then come east. Her play will contain a strong emotional character which will give her talent full play. Of course, it is well understood that the new star would never have flashed into the dramatic firmament but for the fact that her suit against Mr. Breckin ridge brought her before the public. Her case is one of many. In these days the people are not locking for rising merit in any line. They desire to see and hear and read after the men and women who for the moment are regarded as either famous or infamous, and whether they are the one or the other they have no difficulty in attracting an audience. Miss Pollard is the latest novelty in this line, and when public curiosity is grati fied she will disappear from view.

While the course of this woman by no means palliates the offense of Mr. Breck inridge, it will go far towards direct ing the sympathies of good people into other channels. It is very evident that Miss Pollard is making out of her suit just what she intended to make.

Safeguards Against Typhoid Fever. In Richmond the doctors are discuss ing typhoid fever and the best prevent ives. Some maintain that the disease is caused by impure water, while others point to the fact that the fever prevails in mountainous regions, where both the air and the water are pure. Last year in Philadelphia, at Gjrard college, there were a number of cases of typhoid, and as this had occurred for several years there was an investigation. A report quotes the opinion of Dr. Janney as follows:

He told the management that nothing could be done with the cases of typhoid except to care for them, but that future cases might be prevented by constructing an adequate water filter. After much per suasion and argument this was done, at an expense of a few thousand dollars, and instead of twenty cases of typhoid a year. during the past year there have been no

An expert, commenting on this report, says:

This is the repetition of experience that has been world-wide. Adequate and thorough filtration is the most complete, available and economical protection against water-borne diseases for cities drawing their water supply from streams draining areas of large population. This computative areas of large population. This community (Philadelphia), which takes its supply from streams draining practically all of western Pennsylvania and whose typhoid fever rate is larger than that of any other city of 100,000 or over, cannot afford to ignore th

All this is suggestive, and it seems to us that no city, north or south, can afford to ignore this recommendation in favor of thorough water filtration. Typhoid is an uncertain scourge, and it is just as liable to afflict one locality as another. Every reasonable safeguard should be adopted.

Coming to the Front.

The activity of North Carolina in the manufacturing line in recent years is attracting general attention.

Along the railway lines in the old North State travelers see at every station one or more new factories, and the majority of these enterprises are cotton mills, although there is, of course, a fair proportion of tobacco factories. We do not believe that any other form of development would create a more favorable impression. Foreigners and northerners alike are surprised to see thes unmistakable evidences of material progress, and they sound the praises of the state long after they have crossed the border line.

The purely agricultural era of the south is a thing of the past. Now, that our factories in Georgia and North Carolina are shipping their products to every quarter of the globe, and running on full time, and even double time, during the dull season, it is not likely that such an object lesson will be mis taken by anybody.

Laws of Marriage and Divorce. Facts about marriage and divorce are always of interest to the general public, and for this reason the bluebook on the subject that has been issued by the British government is being widely commented upon by the newspapers.

It seems that every country places minimum age limit on marriage, bu only one fixes a maximum limit, and that is Russia. In the czar's domain nobody over eighty years of age can marry, nor is it permitted for one per son to marry more than three times Hungary allows four marriages, but draws the line at that. Hungarian men are not allowed to marry women thirty years younger or twenty years older than themselves.

It is pointed out that the tendency in modern laws bearing upon marriages is toward civil rather than religious contracts. The civil contract is in force in France and in Hungary, while in Scotland the mere statement that they are man and wife made by the two parties to the unique contract is all that is necessary to make it binding. In England a marriage is not legal unless solemnized at a place of worship which has special license, or at the office of the registrar.

Divorce in Canada is a very different proceeding from divorce in Chicago or South Dakota. Parliament must be applied to. There are divorce courts in the remoter parts of the dominion, and owing to the objections to the parliament method general divorce courts throughout the dominion are strongly advocated. The divorce laws of Europe are almost as varied and various as those of the different states of this union, though none of the countries can boast of the progressive methods of our own Chicago. We are a progressive people on this side of the big pond.

SILVER IN GEORGIA.

McDuffie Journal: The silliest yawp of the goldbug press is their denunciation of the demand for the free coinage of silver at its present ration, 16 to 1, upon the ground that it is a populist doctrine. GEORGIA POLITICAL NOTES.

The Columbus Enquirer-Sun, in a leading editorial, addressed to the democrats

Georgia says:
"The best judgment of those who are informed is that Mr. Atkinson will make a good governor. A man of ability, honesty, courage and patriotism, he will faithfully discharge the duties of his high office and enforce the law impartially. We predict, without fear of disappointment, that his administration will be a clean one and without scandal. When it gets well under way we believe that the people will all be satisfied that their government is in good hands and that all is well. We predict that Governor Atkinson's administration will leave behind a clean record that will compare favorably with those of Governo McDaniel, Governor Gordon and Governor Northen, and no higher praise can ever be given it. The democratic leaders car make this statement to the people and the people need not hesitate to it as literally true. It can be said in a seriousness and truth that nothing could be more unwise than for a democrat who was disappointed of his choice, to vent his disappointment and gratify his prejudic

The Waycross Herald gives the following account of a political debate which occurred in Pierce county recently: "The populists had a meeting for the purpose of discussing politics, a populist chairman was chosen, and the subject announced was this: 'Which of the two par ties, populist or democratic, is the best for the people?' Sides were chosen and the ar guments commenced. The debaters wer all populists, but those on the democratic side put in their best licks for the old party, and stated the facts in the case as they actually exist. The populists did their big best to tear the old party into doll rags. In this, however, they failed. The chair man decided that the arguments for de racy were the best and relegated the third party speakers to the rear. We would call this a clear case of being butchered in the house of friends. And this will be the case with all our third party friends. When they discuss the case dispe natel and freely, the decision will be in favor of pure democracy, and eventually our populist friends will all come back into the sion, of financial uncertainty, of short receipts at the government treasury, it has been a task of herculean proportion to get an appropriation from congress for any but a regular and necessary purpose The success that the plucky city of Atlanta has achieved, therefore, in securing an appropriation of $200,000 for the Cotton States and International exposition is almost phenomenal and reflects the highest credit on the tireless activity and the selfsacrificing labors of the public spirited men who engineered the movement to its uccessful termination. It was what might be termed a brilliant campaign and enlist ed the push, the nerve, the shrewdness the brain, and all the other live qualities that have made Atlanta a great city. The movement in Washington for the appropri ation attracted national attention, and its progress was watched everywhere with sympathy and admiration. There was opposition here and there, but it was impetu ously overcome. Even many republican congressmen became interested in it, and gave it their cordial support. The bill is now ready, we believe, to go to the president, and, with the strong endorsement that accompanies it, he will doubtless give it his approval. Atlanta deserved the an propriation for the splendid efforts she made to secure it, and she will receive congratulations and good wishes for the exposition from every quarter.

THE TALK OF THE DAY

That those congressmen who lose their seats because of their fidelity to Fresi-dent Cleveland's personal views will be well provided for has been generally anticipated. 'The rejection of Clifton R Breckinridge by his constituents was fol-lowed almost immediately by his appointment to the Russian mission. The following sentence from a state exchange is not out significance: "Yet there m be a place in the public service for a man with such high ideals and faithful pursuit of the honest conceptions of duty, and we predict that honest Tom Cabaniss will be heard of again."

Apropos of the interview with Colon Sawyer, in yesterday's Constitution, that gentleman calls to state that it was his friend, Colonel Gazaway Huckabee, who told him of the incident of the federal soldier and the green apples, but it was a Major Blank and not Colonel Huckabee, who was the hero of the story. He wanted $30,000 a year set aside for the bringing up of the two children and his relatives in cluding John Jacob Astor approved. They o doubt, thought the court would grant the evidence and recommended that the $30,000 a year be granted, but Judge Barrett, when called upon to approve the finding, makes this statement, which will be the evidence and recommended that the knew of no principle or precedent which would justify the court in wholly confirming the report. It is difficult to conceive of any circumstances which would justify it. I can make no such precedent as the granting of this application in its entirety would involve. The income should in pated merely to accustom thes income should not be dissi luxury. When they are of age they can do what they like with their own. This brings to mind the fact that George W. Vanderbilt has increased his holdings of land near Asheville by the purchase of 98,000 acres of mountain land in the countie of Henderson and Transylvania. This makes his entire holding 114,000 acres. The tract is bounded on the northwest by the crest of an irregular cross chain of lofty mountains connecting the Blue Ridge with the Great Smokies.

Mount Pisgah, the beautiful symmetrical eak so familiar to Asheville tourists, is the crowning peak of this range, and stands guard near the northeast corner of Van erbilt's great mountain preserve. From it the mighty barrier range stretches south west toward the Blue Ridge, and from its southern slopes gush innumerable springs, crystal clear, which collect them-selves, after devious wanderings through dense thickets of rhododendron and heterous forest growth, into streams of considerable size that make their way to the French Broad river. On the banks of the latter, and for some distance up its tribu-taries, settlements of long standing exist but few encroachments have been ma upon this tract. For many years the set-tlers of the valley and foot hills have been driving their cattle there for summer pasturage, and hunters have pierced its depths search of deer, bear and turkeys, while fishermen have whipped its pools for moun-

Just what Mr. Vanderbilt proposes to do with this tract has not been made public, but The Charlotte Observer says that the strict espionage to which he has subjected his former purchase of 16,000 acres, particularly with respect to its protection from game poaching, leads people to guess that he intends to make of the territory one vast game preserve. It is more than probable, however, that some portions will be allotted to experiments on a rather large scale in stock ranching; while there is l.t-tle doubt that he will draw upon its timber resources for the needs of his building operations nearer Asheville, and it is not at all unlikely that some of the timber will be cut for market. Mr. Vanderbilt has entered into competition with local effort in many lines of production—notably in the manufacture of brick and other building material, in market gardening and dairy products. The result has been a general benefit to the community in the way of raising the standard of products. It is seen in the improved enalty of the milk and cream offerproved quality of the milk and cream offer-ed at Asheville doors, and of the vegetables on sale in the city market, which now com-pares favorably with the markets of cities en times the size of Asheville, and it is a natter of frequent and surprised comment from strangers.

and his opponents at the Warm Springs convention will always be a memorable one in the politics of his district. For two days the balloting went on with the body and when the man was selected it was only by a majority of one and threequarters votes. During the convention the springs deserved the title of warm, and would have been no exaggeration to call them exceedingly hot. The fight finally narrowed down to two candidats and the nomination of Colonel Moses was the result. nomination of Colonel Moses was the result.

The campaign of Congressman Moses was an active one, but it was not tiring upon him upon his duties rather more invigorated than otherwise by his stay at his old home and in his district. It has been estimated by conservative men that Congressman Moses will carry the fourth by a majority of not less than 8,000, as party harmony was never more assured in the fourth than now. Colonel Moses, speaking of his omination and election vote, said:

Mrs. Bench Has Her Husband Arrested on a Bail Trover.

Testerday morning Mrs. J. B. Beach was tried before Recorder Calhoun on a charge of disorderly conduct. It is charged that on Saturday she entered the store, which is kept by her husband at 285 Decatur street, and proceeded to make things so lively that she was arrested.

Mrs. Beach told Judge Calhoun that she owned the store which was conducted by her husband and that he had failed to pay her certain money which belonged rightfully to her. Judge Calhoun dismissed the case against Mrs. Beach and advised her to take the case into a justice court.

Accordingly she went before Judge Landrum and swore out a bail trover against her husband for the contents of the store.

Mr. Beach gave bond in the sum of $100 and the case was set for trial in September, when Judge Landrum tries his civil cases for that month.

WEATHER SYNOPSIS AND FORECAST

The observations made by the weather bureau last night showed no abatement in the present hot wave. Throughout the entire south the temperature at 7 ranged high in the eighties, while in the southwest and west it was in the nineties. The only cool spot was in the lake region and northeast, where the mercury was somewhat lower and pleasant temperatures prevailed. The warmest section seemed to be in the southwest and west, where, during the day, maximum temperatures of 100 degrees or nore were reported, and the coolest section was in the vicinity of the eastern lake region, where the highest temperature ranged only from 74 to 78 degrees. With the exception of the south the weather is generally clear. Showers fell during yesterday in the gulf states and Georgia. ranged high in the eighties, while in the

And to that end the populist leaders are engaged in a work which indicates very strongly that in order to secure the aid of the colored people of Georgia they are willing to go to any length-willing, if necessary, that the lines of social distinc-This is very clearly shown by a move-

In those counties the populist leaders are working to induce the negroes to join a secret organ-From a number of different sections of south Georgia come the reports that this plan is being worked. Of course the sensible negroes will none of them be lead off by any such scheme, but it is possible that this oath-bound organization may have some effect among the ignorant of the race. The league is equipped with grips and passwords and each member who joins is required to take an oath that he will be bound by the officers of the organization to anything which they may order. After they're got in they are acquainted with the fact that they have sworn away their political rights and in a number of instances that are reported the negroes have been threatened with being carried before the grand jury for perjury in case they fail to carry out absolutely the orders of the

In some counties in the extreme southern part of the state the aegroes who are members of the organization have in several instances been known to do bodily harm to those who refuse to join and the populist leaders in those counties disclose their real plans by being themselves members of these organizations, and being in close touch with the

Of course these are only the populist leaders and they are keeping their actions very quiet, for they cannot afford to let the rank and file of that party know what they have been doing. They realize that they are weaker with the white people than they were two years ago, and as their prlitical existence depends upon this movement they are ready and willing to go to any extent to get the colored vote. They are not going to succeed in this, for the colored voters of Georgia know that the democrate are their friends and they will not be fooled by any such apparent efforts to lead them away from their friends. And as for the white people, it is safe to say that those who wandered off from the fold of democracy two years ago will not again be fooled, and especially not by leaders who are willing to go to any extent in order to cater to the negro vote.

Queer Methods in Early. Arlington, Ga., August 13 .- (Special.)-It is reported that the negroes in the sixth district of Early county are in a state of terrorism Last Saturday night an armed mob of third partyites went over the district warning all the negroes that if they voted in the democratic primary next Wednesday they might as well prepare to was had expressed their intention of voting the democratic ticket and in one instance is said to have shot so many bulletholes into a negro's house that it was a miracle that he escaped unhurt. If the third party are going to resort to such diabolical measures as that to carry their point they might as well prepare to be dealt with as their conduct deserves. The names of the leaders of this mob are known. The cause of democracy cannot be injured by such dispicable and unlawful acts.

ABOUT HEADQUARTERS.

Chairman Clay and Chairman Berner had their sleeves rolled up all day yesterday, and were hard at work with the details of the campaign, as they developed at cam-paign headquarters. The defeat of Mr. J. W. Harris, who was a candidate for the senatorial nomination in the forty-second district, will perhaps have decided bearing upon the question of the presidency of the next senate. Had he been nominated, Colonel Harris would have been a candidate for the presidency of the body. He was a member of the senate several years ago, and was regarded as one of the strong men of the body. He is beaten by Hon. W. H. Lumpkin, who was a member of the house from Bartow several years ago, and who is one of the most popular men in the county. It looks from this point as if the chances are in favor of Hon. W. H. Venable, whose friends all over the state are very actively at work for him. Hon. W. A. Broughton, of Madi son, who had been urged to make the race son, who had been urged to make the race, will not, it is understood, be a candidate for the position. -Mr. Lucius P. Hills, the Kimball house humorist, secured a vacation yesterday and left for the Northeastern Chautauqua, at Demorest, Ga. He will lecture at the chautauqua tomorrow night on "Queer Peo ple." Mr. Hills is one of the most original humorists in the country and will some day make his mark. His lecture is one of the most unique that has been heard in a long time, and wherever the lecturer appears he wins golden opinions.

-Miss May Shearer, the Edgewood avenue chorus girl, who was so badly hurt a the matinee Saturday afternoon by the falling curtain, was some worse yesterday. Dr. Huzza, who is attending her, says that it will be several days before she will be able to be up. Yesterday she attempted to rise, and falling back, aggravated the in-juries she received Saturday. She is being attended by her sister, Miss Josie Shearer. who was also a member of the Edgewood

-Mr. Wallace Reed, who returned yesterday from a delightful trip to Washington and New York, reports that he run across the Georgia editors at the national capitol and that they were having a great time of it. They have been shown many attentions from the Georgia congressmen and from others, and were so delighted with the capital that they remained there two days one day longer than contemplated in their original plan. Mr. Reed met Joe Carter, Glen Waters and Lucius Lamar, old At lanta newspaper men, in New York, and says they are getting on splendidly.

-Many Kirkwood people have been away for the summer, and have 'ust re-turned. Among them are: Colonel and Mrs. Mynatt and Miss Mynatt, from Old Point Comfort; Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Simons, from visiting relatives in the Shenandoal valley of Virginia; Mr. Will Howard, one of our representatives in Washington, run down for a few days last week. Mr. Wal-ter Emery and sisters, Misses Annie and Julia, are still away at St. Simon's. Miss Emily Lane is in south Georgia with relatives. Among the visitors are the Misses Hill, of Augusta, at Colonel W. O. Mitchell's: Miss Lilla Reid, of Eatonton, at Mr. H. F. Emery's; Miss May Sue Hill, of Augusta, at the Misses Emery's.

He was urged to run by many of Atlanta's strongest citizens. Business men, mechanics, laborers and professional men alike called upon him at his office and requested him to make the race and assured him of vigorous support. To all these appeals he gave a willing ear, but not once did he give utterance to any statement which might be construed into a consent to y'eld to the demands of his friends.

For several months Mr. Gress has been considered a strong quality in the mayoralty contest. It was widely believed that he would at least yield to the stress of personal appeals made to him, but he gave no sign of making an immature conclusion. and jumping in the race before all the circumstances connected with it were made clear to him.

Thus it came about that Mr. Gress remained undecided for so long a period. It was not until late yesterday afternoon that he decided not to enter the race. When a Constitution reporter called to see hir with reference to his possible candidacy be stated that he had reached a decision to decline to allow the use of his name in the race, and had written a card announcing his declination.

BUSINESS IN STOCKS.

n Buys L. & N-Cotton 10 Points Higher-Wheat Lower.

NEW YORK, August 13.—It has been stated from time to time of lab, that the sluggishness of the stock market was the result of the failure of the national legislature to agree upon a tariff policy. It mattered not, so the traders contended, what the lines of policy determined upon might be, as long as something definite was offered. So far as traders were concerned, it could be either the Wilson bill or the Gorman measure—either would do to start up speculation. The main point was to break the deadlock. Today's market fully bore out this theory, for stock speculation was active from the moment it became telerably NEW YORK, August 13.-It has been statactive from the moment it became tclerably certain that an end of the seemingly in-terminable discussion was at hand, trans-actions reaching heavier totals, both in stocks and bonds than for any day for a long time past.

Stocks alone figured for 265,603 shares, while in railway and miscellaneous mortgages $1,901,000 changed hands. London, which was as much, if not more, e. cited as home operators, came in liberal buying orders at the start, the foreigners I sving been influenced by early address from this side. ders at the start, the foreigners laving been influenced by early advices from this side that the house today would decide to recede from its original position and accept the senate bill. London bought about 15,000 shares, its purchases of Louisville and Nashville causing that stock to open at 52, against 50% at the close on Sacurday. The general list improved on these purchases as well as the report of good takes in the corn rell as the report of good rains in the corn belt and the local bears who have been pre-dicting all sorts of disasters to the corncarrying roads, began to cover right and left at the opening. Before they had fairly started it was announced from Washington that the dimocratic caucus of the menters of the house had voted by a decisive majority to recede from their position and accept the bill recommended by the senate 'mancial committee. This was the signal for the execution of large orders on long account and prices advanced with a rish count and prices advanced with a rush. Then was more outside business than for some time past to the encouragement of commission houses. The rise induced the big bulls to sell, but as their offerings were quickly absorbed the room traders turned in near the close and bid up prices all along the line. Financial Gossip.

The New York Stockholder, in its review of last week's stock market, says:

"The government report on the basis of the averages of August 1st made the indicated yield of corn 1,500,000,000 busneis. As the condition has since been reduced by drought and the return last week or the dreaded hot winds, it is inevitable that the actual results will be below even the poor estimate adduced from the figures of the department of agriculture.

"This great shortage in the corn crop is going to be a factor in speculation. Its effects on the transportation business will not be reflected at once in the shrinkage of traffic and the earnings of the roads concerned—obviously the grangers and the trunk lines, on which systems a vast tonnage originates from corn.

"This crop is indeed such an important one to the country that there is a very general disposition to avoid umpleasant discussion of the disaster which has overtaken it. On the other hand railway managers are quietly preparing to adjust themselves to new conditions. That, in some cases, will mean smaler dividends.

"Directors of the Burlington will soon meet and are expected to at least cut their dividend to 1 per cent. Had they been conservative they would have done this three months ago. But they speculated on the future—took a chance on the corn crop and lost. Early last month it looked as it fortune would smile on them with a banner crop, but the close of July gave them instead a crop failure.

"One of the most notable events of the week occurred at the close. Atchison directors on Saturday accepted Mr. J. W. Keinhart's resignation as president and receiver. First Vice President Kobinson will perform the duties of the president's office till a new president is chosen. Mr. Maie also resigned from the Atchison protective committee.

"There has been a favorable change in certain trades. The Dast week's record Financial Gossip.

ed with week before last. It was a remarkably small aggregate, but only twelve millions smaller than in the like period of 1838, when there had been a very pronounced shrinkage as a result of the panic and the general paralysis which followed. "As in bank clearings earnings make a better comparative showing because a year ago they were poor. The fourth week in July sixty-five roads decreased only 0.90 per cent. This does not include the Atchison, which are showing increases are Missouri Pacific $15,000, Chesspeake and Ohio $18,000, and Wabash $12,000, the first week in August. Illinois Central in June decreased in gross $615,000 and lost in July $542,000.

week in August. Inlinois Central in July 542,000.

Features to the tonnage situation were a large movement of wheat, receipts at the west being one and three-quarter million bushels more than a year ago. But the corn movement was only about half a large. Oats increased 300,000 bushels. In consequence of too much competition and too little business there is renewed demoralization in rates.

"Exchange was easier in the absence of demand. Imports of dry goods and general merchandise at $3,100,000 were over two millions smaller than week before last and compared with $3,200,000 a year ago. Exports of breadstuffs were of fair volume. Exports of cotton footed up 14,000 bales compared with 24,000 the week before and 19,000 last year.

"Receipts were 6,000 bales at the ports, against 4,000 week before last and 9,000 a year ago. The cotton market was rather irregular, but with the tendency in the main downward. Middling uplands closed unchanged on the week at 6 15-16 cents. Liverpool advices were disappointing, crop advices brilliant. Rains greatly benefited the plant in Texas.

"There was even too much rain in some sections outside that great producer. Unless trade here and in England revives, or the crop outlook becomes impaired, the 6-cent basis predicted for cotton bids fair to be verified. The visible supply, 2,233,000 bales, is about 200,000 smaller than a year ago, but the crop in sight is $65,000 bales larger."

Hubbard, Price & Co.'s Cotton Letter.

NEW YORK, August 13.—Summary Hubbard, Price & Co.'s letter: Many cables from Liverpool today state that the advance there was due to the buying by larger operators based upon the probability of an early passage of the tariff bill, resulting in a steady, revival of business in the United States. The New York market opened steady at 6 points advance from Saturday, on demand from local shorts, but lost a portion of this advance upon the reaction in Liverpool. At 1 o'clock prices were steady at the highest of the day with but little disposition to sell the market short. During the afternoon the cotton market, in symoathy with all other speculative markets, advanced sharpely upon the practical settlement of the tariff question at Washington, and closed firm at the highest of the day. One factor which has weighed upon cotton, namely, the tariff bill, bids fair to be quickly removed. So long, however, as the crop promises to exceed the consumption speculation will not be attracted to the market.

The Sun's Cotton Review. Hubbard, Price & Co.'s Cotton Letter.

The Sun's Cotton Review.

NEW YORK, August 12.—Cotton advanced 10 to 11 points, closing very steady; sales $1,000 bales. Liverpool advanced 2 to 2½ points, but lost about half of this and closed irregular; spot sales $,000 bales at unchanged priors. At Manchester there was not much doing in yarns, and the trade in cloths was quiet. New Orleans advanced 9 points. Spot cotton here was 1-16c higher. Sales 200 for export and 530 for spinning. Southern spot markets were quirt and unchanged. Galveston weak. Port receipts 2,406 bales, against 712 this day last week and 2,622 last year. Thus far this week 3,656 against 1,527 thus far last week.

Today's features: Liverpool was stronger than had been expected; reports were rather unfavorable and local shorts covert.d. There was very little inclination to sell, and prices were easily advanced. The rains at the south were considered rather excessive in Arkansas, Mississippi and the Carolinas. The Sun's Cotton Review.

Riordan & Co.'s Cotton Letter. NEW YORK, August 13.—(Special.)—Liverpool, though a little higher, showed no creek enthusiasm, and the crop accounts continue very favorable, but a new influence made itself felt in the market today in the settlement of the tariff trouble, which is now regarded as practically at an end. January opened 7 points higher at 6.79, reacted to 6.33, then rallied to 7.01 and closed very steady, at the highest of the day. Many believe that Liverpool will also advance in consequence of the end of our long and wearisome tariff fight, and that we shall see prices considerably higher. The prospective supply is over abundant, but it is quite possible that a big demand from spinners may spring up for cotton, and in that case it would almost certainly be accompanied by a lively speculation, which might carry prices sharply upward, but unless there should be bad accounts from the crop such a boom would probably be short lived. We are still inclined to believe that when the tariff flurry has culmirated, it will be safer to sell than to buy cotton.

York.
The situation is unchanged in the market The situation is unchanged in the market for cottonseed products. New crude oil has been sold at 22 cents loose at mill, but not much activity has developed in new crop deliveries. The market has been somewhat easier, but closes firmer, in sympathy with the grain and provisions market, so that there are no net changes for the week.

THE CHICAGO MARKET.

CHICAGO, August 13.—Those people who hold their wheat over Sunday saw their mistake before the opening today: The weakness which came to corn as a result of the good rains which have been failing throughout the west during the past couple of days was fair reaching enough to have an indirect effect on the wheat market. Long wheat was energetically sold during the parly hours of the session, but when the bulk of the offerings had been absorbed a good demand sprung up which not only availed as a support to prices, but in addition, caused a fair raily. September wheat opened at 54% to 54%, sold down to 54c, rallied and closed at 54% 65%; sold down to 54c, rallied and closed at 54% 65%; of a cent under Saturday. Cash wheat was weak.

under Saturday. Cash wheat was weak. Prices were 1 to 1½c lower.
Corn—The showers which have fallen in plenty throughout Nebraska, Iowa and other plenty throughout Nebraska, lowa and other western states were still the influence at the opening today, as they had been on Saturday. Cheering reports were coming in from the districts where the crop was still in a condition to be nideemed and with more moisture, further improvement was looked for, and lower values were established. Before the close, however, a complete recovery in prices took place, the shorts finding it difficult to cover easily. May corn opened from 52 to 51c, declined to 55½c, rallbid and closed at 52c—unchanged from Saturday. Cash corn was 1 to ½c lower.

Oats had to contend with the weakness in wheat and corn with large receipts and with an increase in the visible supply. That values declined sarly caused no surprise, and that they recovered with corn and wheat seemed natural. September cats closed ½c under Saturday. Cash oats were weak and 1@2c lower.

Provisions—Liquidation by Friday's and Saturday's buyers of products was very depressing to prices in this market during the first part of the session. Later the feeling steadled and grew in strength 's the close approached. Later reports from the yards gave advances in some graces of hogs, the reversal in one cuming from that source. The close was 10c h. her than Saturday for January bork and 7½c each higher for January bork and ribs.

The Cereal Situation.

From The New York Stockholder.

It was a very active week in grain. The overshadowing feature was corn. There has seldom been such great excitement in the market for this cereal as that which prevailed the first half of last week. September corn sold up to 61½ cents, a rise of about 20 cents a bushel in a little over a month. The bull campaign was run by the country. Professional operators in Chicago fought the country, buying day after day for over a fortnight, only to be repeatedly beaten. Skepticism was the basis of their resistance, and it cost them money. Western speculators have grown to disbelieve in reports of crop damage. Their successful selling of wheat and the long decline in that cereal has only strengthened their skepticism. Chicago is a thousand miles nearer the cornfields than New York, but the Grangers are much nearer the cornfields than Chicago. In July, before the hot winds came, they began to buy. They knew that drought had done a lot of damage. On July 26th came the sirocco, blowing across Kansas, Nebraska and Iowa a blast that seemed to come out of a vast furnace and scorching hundreds of miles of cornfields which a fortnight before gave promise of an abundant, if not unprecedented, yield. It was then that a flood of buying orders was received in the Chicago corn pit, to be repeated day after day. The country was buying on facts and conditions, and Chicago speculators were selling on their disbelief. After September corn sold at 61½ cents early in the last week, there was a sharp break of $% cents; but the way the market ralling showed that conditions The Cereal Situation.

were running it. It was noticed as significant that the high prices did not bring the corn to market. The following table compares western receipts of grain last week week before and the corresponding period a year ago;

The corn figures show how light was the movement, considering the great advance. But it was not the only confirmatory evidence. Corn on the farm advanced to 5 cents in Nebraska. Farmers rushed their stock into market at a prodigious rate. Lastly came the government report, indicating, conservatively speaking, a total output of 1,500,000,000 bushels. The fact that the indicated yield on August 1st has been materially changed, owing to further deterioration of the crop makes it certain that the harvest will not net 1,500,000,000 bushels. The drought was not broken the first ten the harvest will not net 1,500,000,000 bushels. The drought was not broken the first ten days of August, and hot winds again blew over the belt west of the Mississippi. They seemed to complete the devastation and final accounts were that in Nebraska farmers were leaving the country. Corn ought to be a safe purchase whenever Chicago bears raid it down, as they will probably do from time to time. Wheat was influenced almost entirely by corn. The feeling is entertained by conservative people that the great shortage in the yield of the coarser grain puts an entirely new aspect on the wheat situation. A great deal of wheat will be fed and is being fed to stock. This will continue, and it should help to reduce supplies. As a matter of fact, however, the immediate surroundings of wheat have not changed much.

a matter of fact, however, the immediate surroundings of wheat have not changed much.

Receipts last week, as reference to the first table will show, were greatly in excess of the movement of a year ago, Farmers sold regardless of damage to the corn crop and low prices, but at the close there was some indication of a falling off in the movement. New spring wheat, however, will begin to come in, in the not distant future, and it remains to be seen whether this movement, after all the talk of damage to the spring wheat crop, will be upon a large scale. If so, it cannot fail to influence the market adversely. The clearances of wheat and flour were only moderate, and were materially smaller than for the corresponding period in 1893. Naturally the advance in prices checked what little export business there was at the opening of the week. This apathy in the export trade is one of the most deterrent features to the wheat situation. With receipts 800,000 to 1,000,000 bushels a day and the export demand mil, it is hard to enthuse on the bull side. Provisions were stronger. They should be bought on weak spots. The movement of hogs, owing to the prospective light corn crop and resultant free selling by farmers, was very heavy, but may soon decrease.

Itamson Bros. & Co.'s Grain Letter.

By Private Wire to J. C. Knox, Manager.

CHICAGO, August 13.—Wheat was weak and lower at the opening. News in general was bearlsh, though the weakness in corn added to the depression in the cereal. Chicago stocks are 20,225,000 bushels, an increase of 1,682,000 bushels. The Russian official report states that wheat is threshing out 50 per cent over the average. Foreign cables reflected somewhat of the break here Saturday. The market gradually declined to 57c for December, catching some stop orders on the way down. The I west point showed a loss of 1%c to 1½c from the close Saturday. Wheat on passage decrease, 1,722,000 bushels shows an increase of 2,320,000 bushels, against a decrease for same period last year of 555,000, when the total visible stood at 58,869,000 bushels. Total clearances of wheat and flour is about 3,500,000 bushels of wheat. Toward the close the market firmed up on the report of the passage of the tariff bill, and the appearance of exporters. New York reports twenty-five loads taken for export. India wheat shipments, 40,000.

Corn, at the opening, was very excited and irregular at lower prices on free liquidation and toppling over of pyramids. The market continued to sag, touching 50%c for May—a decline of 1%c from the close Saturday. Cables were ic to 2c lower, and, the drought now being thoroughly broken, the country has been liquidating. Later a more buoyant tone was felt in the market on a better demand, and some rumor regarding the tariff bill that affected wheat. We think sellers, like the bulls of last week, have overdone themselves, and sales under 51c are not likely to show a profit very soon. The visible decrease was 574,000. The closing was very strong.

Oats—On the large local receipts—605 cars, 205 over the estimate an increase of 1 256 000. Lamson Bros. & Co.'s Grain Letter.

Oats—On the large local receipts—605 cars, 205 over the estimate, an increase of 1,256,000 in the visible supply! and lack of demand in this market—has been weak and depressed throughout the entire session, closing at about the lowest point for the day. There was a fair speculative trade, the selling has been in the lead, and prices show a decline of 1c from Saturday's close.

Provisions opened weak and eased off on the weakness in corn, firmed up considerably later, however, on outside demand, country buying and light offerings. buying and light offerings.

The Flour Market.

The Flour Market.

From The Wall Street Journal.

During the rast week the flour, market has been considerably upset by the violent changes in the grain markets. The generally higher trend of grain has caused a correspondingly firm feeling at the mills, and limits have been raised in many cases to a prohibitive basis.

Business in city mill flour has been pretty good at firm prices, spring patents and winter straights coming in for the greater share of demand. Western flour, however, has been comparatively slow. Exporters have had orders in and done some business at ruling prices, but their limits have been usually below a working basis. Feed has been firm, the light supply and strength of grain sustaining the market. of grain sustaining the market.

"There is no truth in the rumor that the Illinois Central will not sign the agreement. I have just come from Chicago, and I am of the opinion that the Illinois Central will continue to be 1 member of the association. mer tourists' season rates offered to all the resorts within the territory of the Southern Passenger Association.

Last season this traffic was very short on account of the travel to the world's fair at Chicago, and the roads fared badly in this section of the south outside of the passenger traffic which the great fair brought them. The summer places were poorly attended, most of the southern people who could get away for a vacation treple who could get away for a vacation pre-ferring to spend the time in Chicago view-ing the wonders and things of interest at

This year things have been very dif-ferent. The average resort has been crowd-ed with pleasure and health seekers, and the roads have had their hands pretty vell filled taking care of the travelers.

The summer tourists' rates went into effect by authority of the Southern Passenger Association about the 1st of May, this year, and since that time there has been a rush to the lands of pleasure by the sea and among the blue mountains.

C., H. and D. and the E. T., V. and G. The case that was recently tried at Nashville involving the interests of the Queen and Crescent and the Cincinnati, Hamiltin and Dayton was a very important bit of railway litigation of general interest in the world of southern railways. It was the contest between the majority and the minority of the bondholders of the Cincinnati extension of the East Tennessee, Virginia and Georgia Railway Company. These bonds were secured by a mortage upon the stock of the Alabama Great Southern Railroad Company, held by the East Tennessee road, amounting to $1.600,000, the Central Trust Conpany, of New York, being trustee. The East Tennessee road failed to pay the interest on these bonds, and upon default of the interest it was provided that the trustee holding the stock should vote it at its discretion. Last March the Cincinnati, Hamilton and Dayton road bought up a majority of these bonds, and they were deposited with the Central Trust Company. In July it was decided to call a meeting of the stockholders and to remove the directors representing the minority interests, replacing them with directors favored by the Cincinnati, Hamilton and Dayton. The minority objected and wanted the entire holdings sold, but to this the majority objected and insisted upon a meeting August 3d to oust minority directors. The minority thereupon brought proceedings to enjoin the Central Trust Company to vote the stock a certain way so as to prevent this action, seeking a postponement of sixtended to. In his decision Judge Lurton said that the minority interests might be attended to. In his decision Judge Lurton said that the minority interests might be attended to. It is estimated that if the property of the Central should be taxed as other rail-road property is taxed in later times, it would cout the road about $60,000 or $60,000 move than it now has to pay each year.

The Central Commissioner Stahlman Meeting.

Since Mr. W. D. Basier has had charge of the office as general agent of the Central Railroad and the Ocean Steamship Company, he has been at work on a plan of centralization and has taken an important step in this direction by bringing to Savannah from New York the sudding department of the Steamship Company, joining it with 'the Central there.

This leaves nothing in New York but the traffic department of the Steamship Company, joining it with 'the Central there.

Survival of Fittest.

The universal law of the survival of the fittest was at first a physical law, in the early days of humanity the struggle for existence was a struggle of "brute strength." Might meant muscle. The victor won becaue he was neeter of foot, could welld a heavier bludgoon, or bend a lustier bow than his antagonist. But, as civilization developed, this law changed. Today might means mind rather than muscle. The mailed armor of the marauder of the Dark Ages has been doifed for the better armor of the enlightened age of the printing press. In the fight for existence now education is an infinitely superior weapon to the club and spear of barbarism. Both the weapon and shield of the man won wages life's battle today are embraced in one word—knowledge.

"Hard times" should be the last plea against accepting the opportunity offered by The Constitution for the acquirement of a complete and unabridged edition of that peerless work, the Encyclopeadia Britannica.

In the first place the terms are such that Survival of Fittest.

peerless work, the Encyclopeadia britannica.

In the first place the terms are such that they would be easy in the hardest of times. Ten cents a day, even it the times were not getting better, would be no burden in comparison with the value of the investment. In the second place "hard times" turnish the very best argument in favor of such an investment. Certainly the same amount of money could be put into nothing that would insure such returns and contribute so much toward a safeguard against hard times in the future. Lock the world over and it is the ignorant who suffer most from hard times. Ignorance has always been the most prolline mother of poverty. In proportion to the number of the educated and the illiterate there are incomparably more destitute and helpless among the latter. Knowledge is the one great fulcrum which enables men to make the world, and he who cannot seize that fulcrum is bound to go down, not only in hard times, but in good times also.

The Encyclopeadia Britannica is the sum of the world's knowledge. Its possession by any family is a source of knowledge vastly superior to all others. Its possession means the formation of a habit of consuming it, and that, once formed, is sure to result in most valuable education because self-sought and that the most effective way for "hard times" in the most effective way for "hard times" in the future.

TREATING THE WRONG DISEASE.

Many times men and women call on their family physicians, suffering, as they imagine, one from dyspepsia, another from heart disease, another from nervous exhaustion or prostration, another with pain here and there, and in this way they all present, alike to themselves and their easy-going and indifferent or over-busy doctor, separate and distinct diseases, for which he prescribes his pills and potions, assuming them to be such, when, in reality, they are all only symptoms caused by some delicate or private disorder. The physician, is norant of the cause of suffering, chcourages his practice until large bills are made. The suffering patient gets no better, but probably worse by reason of the delay, wrong treatment and consequent complications. A proper treatment given and directed to the cause would have entirely removed the disease, thereby dispelling all those distressing symptoms and instituting comfort instead of prolonged misery.

DR. HATHAWAY & CO., who make a true and genuine specialty of delicate and private diseases peculiar to men and women explain their remarkable success to this fact. They study each case thoroughly and direct their treatment to the cause, remove that and make permanent cures. This enables them to cure where others have failed. They are the acknowledged leaders in their specialty.

Beecher Speaks.

"At first children are animals. From animalhood they grow gradually to nascent forms of higher nature, partly by Hereditary Tendencies and partly by Culture.

"Books are the windows through which the soul looks out. A home without books is like a room without windows.

"No Man Has a Right

To bring up his children without surrounding them with books if he has the means to buy them. IT IS A WRONG to his FAMILY. He cheats them. Children learn to read by being in the presence of books. The love of knowledge comes with reading and grows upon it, and the love of knowledge in a young mind is almost a warrant against the inferior excitement of passions and vices.

"Let us pity those poor, rich men who live barrenly in great, bookless homes. Let us congratulate the poor that in our day books are so cheap that a man may make a handsome addition to his library every year for the price of what his tobacco and beer would cost him.

"Among the Earliest Ambitions

To be excited in clerks, workingmen, journeymen, and indeed among all that are struggling up in life from nothing to something, is that of securing and constantly adding to a library of good books.

"A little library growing larger every year is an honorable part of a young man's history. It is a man's duty to have books. A library is not a luxury, but one of the necessities of life."

The Encyclopædia Britannica

Should be the foundation of every library; the whole world of cultured men are agreed upon that subject, because it is the best authority upon every conceivable topic, and if you have this you need add no other books only as inclination and a full purse may prompt you.

You Intend to Get

This Encyclopædia for your home sometime—it is only a question of how soon. If you order now you will get the benefit of THE CONSTITUTION'S introductory rates—a saving of from $21 to $28 on the price of your set, besides getting in on the remarkably easy terms made possible by THE CONSTITUTION'S special contract. But what is still more important every day you delay you dedrive yourself and your family of the elevating and refining influence of this excellent library, which might as well be placed in your home today, for it can be done by denying yourself the small indulgence of one cigar a day.

8 IMPRESSIVE FUNERAL YESTERDAY.

Funeral, Which Was a Large One. Interred at Oakland.

Interred at Oakland.

The funeral services of Mr. James M. Toy, the oldest iccomotive engineer in the south, were held yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock. The funeral sermon was preached by Rev. Vigil Norcross, by request of Mr. Toy, who saked his relatives just before his death to send for Dr. Norcross, who was one of his most intimate friends.

In 186 Mr. Toy came from Philadelphia to Atlanta and at once began his career as a locomotive engineer. The first engine that ran on the track of the Atlanta and West Point railroad was under his care and he remained with this road until his retirement from active duty. When the passenger trains began running over this road he took the first one out from Atlanta.

At that time the road was built only as far as Newman and as the rails were laid further on his trains were given longer exhedules. Before coming to Atlanta he was an engineer on a steamboat in Washington city that was set apart especially for contressmen, senators and prominent men at the national capital.

He was in charge of this boat for several ream and knew personally most of the preminent men of that time.

Before going to Washington city he served an apprentioeship at the old Globe machine works, in Philadelphia, and was considered one of the most expert mechanics in that city. Though he came from a section that later became engaged in conflict with the south, he sided with the people of his adopted home.

When the property of the West Point road was in danger from the attacks of union oldiers, he was placed in charge of the unions. He took an assistant and the two men left Atlanta with all of the engines of the road. He took them to various places along the line and left them where he hought them most secure. His judgment wow correct, for not one of the engine was lost.

After having disposed of the last engine was lost.

GEORGIA, FULTON COUNTY.—To the Superior Court of Said County: The petition of Charles A. Ault, of the county of Hamilton and state of Ohio, and Joseph R. Brown, C. M. Simpson and Howell C. Erwin, of the county of Fulton and state of Georgia, shows that they desire for them selves and their associates to be incorporated under the name of SULTHERN POWERS COMPANY.

selves and their associates to be incorporated under the name of SOUTHERN POWDER COMPANY, and by such name to sue and to be sued, to have and use a common seal, to plead and be impleaded, and to have all the powers incident to such corporations under the laws of Georgia, and also such other powers as are hereinafter specially prayed for.

The object of said corporation is pecuniary gain. The principal business which is to be carried on under said corporate name is to manufacture, buy and sell, sporting and blasting powder, dynamite and other explosives as they may desire to manufacture and deal in. They also ask the privilege of purchasing and owning real estate, stocks, bonds and other evidences of indebtedness; to make and execute title deeds, mortgages and such other evidences of debt or obligations as may be necessary in the conduct of their business, and in the conduct of said business to do any act or thing that a natural person could do, and which is not prohibited to corporations.

The amount of capital to be employed by them actually paid in is one hundred thousand dollars, and they desire the privilege of increasing the amount of capital stock of said corporation to any sum not exceeding one hundred and afty thousand dollars, the said increase when made to be done in accordance with the by-laws of the corporation.

The capital stock of the corporation above

state, of in other states, as they may deem advisable and for the best interests of said corporation.

The time for which they desire to be incorporated is twenty years, and they pray for the right of renewal at the expiration of said term, as provided by law. They pray for such authority to elect a board of directors and such other officers and agents as they may deem proper for the best interests of said company. They also pray for the right to adopt such rules, by-laws and regulations for the government and management of said company as may seem to the best interests of the same.

Wherefore, they pray that they, their associates, successors and assigns may be incorporated by and in the name of "SOUTHERN POWDER COMPANY," with all the rights, powers and privileges hereinbefore set forth. And petitioners will ever pray, etc.

MAY ENJOIN THE CITY

Prvor Street Will Be Torn Up Today for the New Paving.

TALK OF AN INJUNCTION AGAINST IT.

Citizens Say That It Is Too Hot to Tear Up the Earth-Messrs. Clayton and Richards Leave Thursday.

various reasons the work of repaving Pryor street is at last to begin this morning. That is, it will begin unless something arises to prevent it. That something of this kind will arise is not at all unlikely, and that something may come in the form of Pryor street are very much opposed to that it would be very unhealthy on acto tear up the street during such weather to tear up the street during such weather would be to invite fever to their homes.

These citizens are so strong in their opposition that yesterday there was considerable talk of an injunction to prevent the city from doing the work just at this time. City Engineer Clayton says that these fears are groundless, however, as very little excavating is to be done on the street, unless the grade is to be changed, and this is not likely. Besides, Mr. Clayton says that it is customary to do street work just the same in August as in any other month and hat no evil results usually follow.

The work of paving, or rather of preparand early this morning.

A large force of men will be put to work on 1991 the rubble stone, with which the street is now paved, will be taken up for three blocks. As it is taken up it will be carried to the nearest cross street, where it will be broken up to make the concrete which is to form the foundation for the vitrified brick with which the street is to be paved.

The work will be in charge of Mr. W. A

Haskell, superintendent for the Standard Paving Company, of Danville, Va., which has the contract for paving the street. Mr. J. E. Hanckel, secretary and treasof the company, is also here to look

This company has laid mile after mile of its paving in Knoxville, Tenn. The company's representatives in this city promise to make Pryor street the finest drive in the city, not excepting Peachtree street.

The new paving on the street, when it is laid, will be exactly like that on the new

Forsyth street bridge.

There is a desire on the part of some of the residents of Pryor street to have the grade changed from Mitchell to Richardson street, but it is not likely that this will be done, as damage suits against the city would probably follow such a proceeding.

However, the matter may be brought before the city council and that body may order the grade changed; otherwise it will remain as it now is. If the grade is not changed, the work will completed probably by the middle of

A Waterworks Convention. On Thursday next Superintendent W. G Richards, of the Atlanta waterworks, and City Engineer R. M. Clayton will leave the city to attend the annual convention of American Waterworks Association, at perintendents of waterworks of all the principal cities of the United States and Canada. Besides these a great many of the leading scientists of Europe and even of far-away Japan are members of the assoclation and regularly attend its meetings.

These meetings are a source of great profit to all who attend them, as many stions of vital importance in the suc-sful operation of a city waterworks are discussed. Opinions as to the best methods of obtaining the best results with a water-

Atlanta next year, and with that end in view they will carry an invitation to the association to meet in Atlanta from the city council of this city.

It is a foregone conclusion that these gentlemen will be successful in their efforts in this direction, as the members of the association are all anxious to visit the Gate City of the South. They would have met here this year but for the fact that Atlanta's new waterworks system had not been completed when they held their last meeting at Milwaukee.

This convention will be a big thing for Atlanta, if she gets it, as the attendance is usually very large, the delegates numbering usually from four to five hundred.

Items Gathered at the Custom House

In looking over the old papers in the clerk's office yesterday afternoon at the custom house, the first criminal case ever tried in the northern district of Georgia was disclosed. It was the case of the United States government against William Erwin, a postal clerk at Ellijay, Ga., and was filed on the 9th of January, 1856. The prosecuting attorney was George A. Gordon, and the counsel for the defendant A. J. Hansell. The proceedings were held at Marietta, Ga., which was then the judicial center of the northern district. Erwin was indicted under the charge of embezzlement and was accused of breaking one a latter. and was accused of breaking open a letter committed to his custody. On a trial of the issue, however, he was acquitted of the charge and set at liberty. Reuben Latimer was the foreman of the jury.

in the railway mail service, is now a practicing attorney at Seattle, Wash. He writes that he is pleasantly located and has a fine opening on the Pacific coast. His friends may communicate with him by directing their letters in care of P. O. box 250, Seattle, Wash. Mr. del Bondio is a graduate of the Atlanta Law school and was admitted to the bar before leaving the state. He will no doubt achieve a merited success in his

Blue Ridge and Atlantic railroad, filed his bond for $10,000 in the clerk's office of the custom house yesterday afternoon. The bond was given under a new receivership bill filed by the Central Trust Company, of New York, against the Blue Aidge and At-lantic Railroad Company, in which he is named as receiver for the road.

A civil service examination will be held tomorrow at the custom house to fill the vacancy of stenographer in the clace of superintendent of the railway mall service. Many applicants will be examined.

ATLANTA MAY GET IT.

A Sanitary Inspectors' Association Is Being Formed-May Organize Here.
Calef Sanitary Inspector Veal, of this city, is endeavoiring to organize a national sanitary inspectors' association, and to that end he has secured the co-operation of the inspectors of several other cities.

In these days of associations it is a great wonder that such a one has not been organized long ago, and Chief Inspector Veal deserves great credit for having originated the idea of forming one.

When the association is formed, the inspectors will hold annual meetings, and will discuss the best ways and means of keeping our cities clean, and, in consequence of their cleanliness, healthy.

Chief Inspector Veal's idea is to have the first meeting of the new association held next year in Atlanta, and he is now at work hard perfecting his plans to that end.

A GREAT ADVANCE.

How Food and Nourishment Have Been Reduced to an Exact Science So That Dyspepsia Is a Thing of the Past.

When one takes a piece of bread into the mouth, this is what occurs. The motion of the jaws in chewing forces from little glands the liquid which we know as saliva. glands the liquid which we know as saliva. This contains a peculiar principle which at once attacks the food, dissolving or digesting it, with the production of certain sugarlike compounds, in which form it is ab-

Other foods are similarly acted upon in the stomach, and still others are not digest-ed until they reach the duodenum. If for any reason the digestive organs have be-come deranged, food is worse than uselest, for, instead of being absorbed, it ferments and decomposes with the production of poisonous elements that set up all sorts of disorders.

Here is how the ingenuity of man has arranged to assist nature. Scientists have discovered that plants as well as animals digest their food and in very much the same way. Digestive principles have been same way. Digestive principles have been separated from certain fruits and grains and are now used for preparing an artificially digested food known as Paskola, so that it is absorbed immediately upon entering the system.

digested food known as Paskoia, so that he is absorbed immediately upon entering the system.

Paskola has long since passed the experimental stage, and is being used with success and satisfaction by thousands of suffering dyspepties.

Here is the testimony of a prominent insurance agent at Fenton, Mich.:

"Gentlemen: For several years I had gradually been growing weaker and paler with much loss of flesh.

"I had no energy, moved about with difficulty; could not sleep, and, of course, had a very poor appetite. Last March a friend of mine, living in New York, and knowing of my condition, sent me two small bottles of Paskola.

"I took them according to directions and could see a marked change. In fact, my friends and acquaintances noted the improvement in my appearance and spoke of it.

"Today I weigh 150 pounds, or as much as I ever did. My face bears a healthy color and I get about as quickly as ever. My sleep refreshes me, my appetite is good and I do not see but that I am as well as ever.

"I very willingly make these statements, ever. "I very willingly make these statements, "I very willingly make these statements, deeming it due to those who are suffering as I suffered, and are perhaps wasting their time and money by employing incompetent physicians who do not understand their case, but who do know how to make big bills. Paskola is a wonderful food. Very truly yours.

"July 5, 1894."
Thus is an original method of combating dyspepsia sustained by testimony.

Paskola can be had of any reputable druggist. An interesting pamphlet descriptive of the product will be sent free on application to The Pre-Digested Food Co., 30 Reade street, New York.

The Southern Shorthand and Business University's Graduates

IN DEMAND AT GOOD SALARIES.

They Are Paid-Briscoe and Arnold's

A good business school is one of the greatest blussings to any community, and undoubtedly the Southern Shorthand and Business university in the Grand on Peachtree street, of which A. C. Briscoe and L. W. Arnold are managers, enjoys the reputation of belonging to that class of schools.

A visit to this reputable institution will disclose features, which, seemingly, are indispensable to a practical business education, yet, which are possessed by but few colleges.

tion, yet, which are possessed by but few colleges.

Noticing the rapid strides that this institution has made in the past f.w months, a reporter called yesterday on the managers to ascertain a few facts.

"Is it true that you will have charge of the business d-partment of the Southern Baptist college?"

"Yes," they replied, "that honor has been conferred upon us."

"Yes," they replied, that holor has been conferred upon us."

"We understand that the committee appointed by the alumnae of the Girls' High school to investigate the various colleges has decided that your university was the best and most practical."

"That is quite true, and they have since placed a student in our school to prosecute the business course.

"We have received several very high compliments within the past few months, and we shall strive harder than cv.r to maintain the confidence of the business community by doing conscientious work.

"Our graduates, numbering over six thousand, are in business all over the country, and the most of them holding prominent and lucrative positions. In July we had over twenty-five applications for help. In September we expect to be unable to supply the demand that will be made upon us.

"Mr. Henry Revill, reporter of the Cow Ar. Heary Revin, Reporter of the Cow-eta circuit, who is one of our graduates, is doing faithful work and getting big pay. He made a short time ago $600 on a three weeks' job.

"Mr. M. J. McCord, of the United States court, and Mr. H. L. Parry, of the Stone Mountain circuit, are also graduates of our institution, and both are making money rapidly.

institution, and both are making money rapidly.

"Many other of our graduates are making from $40 to $150 per month, and some as much as $200 a month.

"In a letter just received from Mr. Lucius Lamar, h; says: 'I have visited Packard's, Graham's, Pitman's and other leading colleges, and am proud to say that none of them in New York can compare maverably with the "Southern."

"We shall be pleased to see any one or to send our catalogue to any address."

RULES FOR POLICE.

tions for the Force.

WILL BE PRESENTED TO THE COUNCIL

Patrolmen Have Been Dilatory in Paying Their Debts and the Cor sioners Will Take the Matterin Hand.

A huge pile of new rules was adopted by the board of police commissioners at their regular meeting yesterday afternoon. If they are passed upon by the city cour cil at the next session, hereafter the members of the Atlanta police force will not be in doubt as to just what their duties are on all occasions, for the smallest detail relating to a patrolman's deportment is explicitly and minutely stated.

Several months ago, it was decided that the present rules relating to the officers and men of the police force were insufficient and needed revision. To compile a new set, Chairman English appointed Commissioner Branan, Commissioner Venable and Chief of Police Connolly, and since then this committee has devoted most of its spare time to the work of getting together proper regulations for the man. The rules were too lengthy The rules were too lengthy men. The rules were too lengthy to be read before the board yesterday, but each commissioner examined them and it was the unanimous opinion that they should be put in force as soon as possible. All of the departments come in for their share of attention in the nev rules, and a certain line of conduct is pre-scribed, from the chief of police down to the new rules will be presented, and if adopted go into effect at once. Copies will be printed and distributed among the men. The patrolman and his debts were the subject which caused much discussion among the commissioners. Chief Connolly read the complaints of a lot of creditors read the companies of a lot of creatures concerning the delayed payment of debts by the members of the police force, and several collectors appeared in person to press the claims of their employers.

"They are pretty strict rules," said Commissioner Branan, who was chairman of the committee, "and the boys will have to walk straight after this."

At the next meeting of the city council

"I am not in favor," said Chairman English, "of keeping men on the force who will not pay their honest debts." "I think, also," said Commissioner Johnson, in an emphatic way, "that the men ient arrangements with the firms they owe and I offer the following resolutions: 'Re-solved, That we hereby agree to give the delinquents sixty days in which to arrange with their oreditors, and should they fail to do so the fault lies with them. The rules of the board will be enforced as to all debts created after the said delinquents are qualified as officers of the city." By unanimous vote, the resolution was adopted, and will be put into effect at once.

In the matter of the missing money which ecently has been called to the attention of the commissioners, communications were read from Chief Connolly and Station House Keeper Foute.

The chief's communication gave a statement of the case to the effect that some ment of the case to the effect that some time last October a gentleman arrested for gaming turned over to Chief of Detectives Wright $25.75 as collateral for his appearance before the court. He in his turn, as the records prove, turned over this amount to Station House Keeper Foute. The mone was deposited in a drawer. When at the end of the week the accounts were arranged it was discovered that the amount was

In his note addressed to the board, Dr. Foute stated that he remembered receiving a sealed envelope from Detective Wright, which he said contained $25.75. He placed this in the drawer used for the keeping of money received in that manner, and in some way it disappeared.

It was the general opinion of the board that some inexplicable mistake had been made, and, as the amount was received while Dr. Foute was on duty, he should be held responsible. By motion, this was

The commission-ers adjourned without taking action upon the cases of the suspended officers, which will come up for hearing at a call meeting next week.

And Speaks Many Unpleasant Truths to Her Audience-Brother Tillman Adds Some Lively Words.

Under a little round tent at the junction of Williams and West Cain streets, is a determined looking woman who dresses in black and preaches with a spirit and dash that is remarkable. She is Mrs. S. E. Taylor, and her home is in Phoenix, Ari. Five weeks ago she began holding revival services at this place and has since then held two services a day. The tent last night was filled and the services were of a free and easy style. Mrs. Taylor does not hesitate to speak her con victions and said during her sernen that people who refused to profess religion were candidates for hell and go straight to everasting perdition."

The tent is pitched almost under the shadow of the Aragon hotel, and during the ser ow of the Aragon notes, and utiling the vices the music from the roof garden could be plainly heard. Members of the church who fail to work for the good of others were unmercifully scored by the lady minister who said they were certain to go to

Rev. J. L. Tillman is assisting in the meeting and startled his hearers by suddenly exclaiming: "There are scores of peo-ple in this tent tonight who, if swallowed up by an earthquake this minute would go straight to hell." He then asked that every member of a church in the tent wo among the congregation and shake hands with the unsaved.

Only five responded and then Mr. Tillman said he felt hurt, very much turt, and he proceeded to tell the people who did not respond to his invitation his candid cp nion of them.

"The devil has gained a victory over us," he exclaimed, "and you church people should take your name off the books. "You come her; and sit and drink in everything that is said and give up nothing. You are like an old frog pond that catches all the rain that falls and never gives i back. I would rather try to save a dozen unprofessed sinners than to redeem you. I am thoroughly tired of seeing you people sit and do nothing. You haven't got religion and that is all to it."

Rev. Mr. Tillman then announced that Mrs. Taylor had a few words to say before the melting closed on a very peculiar subject. Mrs. Taylor then said she wanted the people to pray for a woman whose name she would not give. This woman had a daughter, she said, that had professed re-ligion, but the mother refused to allow her to join the church.

"Lord save us; we need your help," cried Rev. Tillman. "Oh Lord get us very much out of order here tonight. out of order here tonight.
